

'His Master's Voice'

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and members of the special advertising committee, busy men, yesterday afternoon sacrificed their own time and listened to the publisher of the LOS ANGELES EVENING EXPRESS, IN WHICH A LOCAL PUBLICATION CALLED THE GLENDALE PRESS IS INSERTED FREE AND CIRCULATED IN GLENDALE, tell them HOW AND WHERE THE BOARD OF CONTROL, composed of representative citizens of Glendale, SHOULD SPEND THE MONEY SUBSCRIBED IN GLENDALE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADVERTISING GLENDALE!

The master has spoken. If there were any doubt in any mind as to who is the owner of the local publication inserted with and distributed by the Los Angeles newspaper, that doubt has now been removed. For the master of the insert publication left his desk in the office of his Los Angeles newspaper, came to Glendale and gave his views on advertising.

Of course, the fact that the Board of Control having in charge the spending of Glendale's advertising fund saw fit, after considerable investigation, to spend $10,000 with two Los Angeles morning newspapers and did NOT set aside ONE CENT for the Los Angeles evening newspaper acting as the parent of the local publication, did not bring the master to Glendale! Certainly not! He said so himself! He said he did not want ANY of the money spent with ANY of the Los Angeles newspapers! Apparently, if HIS Los Angeles publication is NOT to have ANY of the appropriation, then, if he has HIS way, NONE of the Los Angeles newspapers shall have ONE CENT! The master is, of course, acting unselfishly and because he thinks the people of Glendale are unable to direct their OWN advertising campaign with their OWN money.

Ever since the advertising budget of the advertising committee and the Board of Control was made known, the local representative of the publisher of the UNRECOGNIZED Los Angeles publication has endeavored to upset the plans for the campaign, intimating that the score or more of Glendale citizens who have the work in charge are not competent to judge how and where the GREAT-EST RESULTS may be obtained for the amount to be expended. The local representative even went so far as to see to it that certain citizens having to do with the fund received a pre-view of advance "proofs" of matter he proposed to publish in his master's local publication if the Board of Control continued its program of advertising in Los Angeles newspapers. Of course, the fact that his master's publication was NOT included in the appropriation had nothing to do with the case! In fact, the publisher of the Los Angeles publication NOT included in the budget would REFUSE to take Glendale's advertising! It would be money wasted, perhaps. All of which displays a knowing attitude.

But the Board of Control, anxious to get the BEST results out of the $30,000 secured from a goal of $50,000 set, decided to spend $10,000 in two Los Angeles morning newspapers. They let it be known to the local representative of the Los Angeles evening publication. Then came the local insert of the Los Angeles evening publication with the claim that the money was not being spent according to campaign promises.

Less than $30,000 would not go far with a wholly national campaign, was, evidently, the view taken by those in charge of the fund. BUT, many thousands of eastern people are arriving in Los Angeles RIGHT NOW with money to spend and invest in Southern California. The committee, evidently, reached the conclusion that the spending of $10,000 would be, in a great measure, national in its scope IF THEY COULD IMMEDIATELY TELL THE THOUSANDS ARRIVING IN LOS ANGELES OF THE GLORIES OF GLENDALE! That appears like sound reasoning to The Glendale Evening News.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been and now are being expended by Los Angeles and the railroads to BRING eastern people to Los Angeles. The city of Glendale has raised about $30,000 to advertise this community. It looks like good business to spend $10,000 to buy space in Los Angeles newspapers to TELL THE THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE NOW ARRIVING IN LOS ANGELES ABOUT GLENDALE. Other cities not so large as Glendale have found that it pays. That, evidently, is the view of the committee in charge of this city's fund. But, fortunately—or unfortunately—the committee did NOT include the parent newspaper of the local publication in its appropriation! Hence the howl.

So the directors of the Chamber of Commerce were yesterday afternoon favored with a visit from the master of the Los Angeles newspaper NOT included in the advertising budget and he told them of their mistakes. He is, of course, a disinterested outsider who hopes to avert a sad waste of Glendale's money. He sees no use, evidently, of permitting Glendale to spend $10,000 in Los Angeles newspapers NOT his own for the purpose of telling many thousands of eastern people, arriving every week in Los Angeles, about the advantages of Glendale. It is not national advertising, he seems to believe.

However, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce, after listening to the master's voice, have not yet made a move toward changing the plans of the advertising committee and the Board of Control. Beyond removing the last vestige of doubt—if there ever was any—as to who owns the local publication inserted with the Los Angeles evening newspaper for distribution here, the visit of the master seems to have been unproductive.

As was stated already by The Glendale Evening News, we have confidence in the judgment of the representative Glendale men who outlined the advertising budget. They, evidently, reached the conclusion that $10,000 will be well spent in the re-distribution of the thousands of NATIONAL people who are daily flocking into Los Angeles. They believe, evidently, that it is worth while to ADVERTISE in Los Angeles newspapers to direct the newcomers to Glendale. And, too, the publisher of the Los Angeles evening newspaper in question also believes that advertising draws people. HE MAINTAINS HIS GLENDALE DAILY PRESS FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING CIRCULATION FOR HIS LOS ANGELES EVENING EXPRESS IN ORDER THAT ADVERTISING IN HIS LOS ANGELES NEWSPAPER WILL DRAW THE PATRONAGE OF GLENDALE PEOPLE TO LOS ANGELES STORES! So, then, why should not Glendale advertise in Los Angeles newspapers to draw people arriving in Los Angeles to Glendale? Sounds reasonable. No doubt the advertising committee thinks so.

Therefore, as the committee of Glendale business men has decided to try it, The Glendale Evening News is willing to show its faith in their judgment by saying:

The budget has been approved by the advertising committee, by the Board of Control, by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce; let's stop TALKING about it and get into ACTION! The only one raising the question of the wisdom of the expenditure is the local insert of the Los Angeles newspaper NOT included in the appropriation. Its owner has had his say. We have heard the master's voice. Now, then, let the committee function and take advantage of the tide of tourists pouring into Los Angeles. Let's go! ADVERTISE!

RECOMMEND CHANGE IN OFFICE

Movement Started to Take Department of Justice Out of Politics

By KENNETH CLARK
For International News Service.
WASHINGTON, May 23.—A move was launched in Congress today to "take the department of justice out of politics."

Declaring the Wheeler-Brookhart committee of which he is chairman, would recommend far-reaching re-organization of the department, Senator Brookhart, Republican of Iowa, announced that he would demand that the office of attorney-general "be taken from the cabinet."

Demand Prosecutions
The report of the committee will be divided into two sections, Brookhart said. First, recommendation for grand jury indictment of men involved in illicit liquor deals; and second, a demand for a sweeping clean up of the department itself. Criminal prosecutions will be turned over to Attorney-General Harlan F. Stone.

"The committee's investigation of the department of justice under the administration of Harry M. Daugherty has demonstrated that justice cannot be satisfactorily administered as long as practice permits a politician to head this great office," Brookhart said.

Gaston Means Tries To Start Fight

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Police were called to separate Paul Howland, one of the attorneys for Harry M. Daugherty, and Gaston B. Means, former department of justice agent, who became engaged in a heated controversy after today's session of the Wheeler-Brookhart committee. The combatants were separated before they came to blows.

During the hearing Howland, who was accused by Senator Wheeler, Democrat of Montana, of employing Means as a spy during the impeachment proceedings against Daugherty in the House, shouted that he would not even "hire Means to clean cuspidors."

Continues Controversy
After the session Means rushed up to Howland and remarked:

PREDICTS RAISE IN VALUES HERE

Southland on Threshold of Greatest Advance In History, Is Claim

Values in Southern California will increase fifteen times within a lifetime of the average person, William Chapin, president of the Greater Hollywood association, and well-known newspaperman of this section of the United States, told members of the Kiwanis club at the meeting held today noon at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse.

Southern California, the speaker said, is on the verge of the greatest surge ever known in the history of the world. Fear that the "bottom of things was going to drop out," has retarded development somewhat, he said, but this fear is being overcome, and Los Angeles is destined to become the leading city of the world.

This is due, Mr. Chapin said, because within a radius of 600 miles of Los Angeles are to be found 85 per cent of the raw

FOUR JAPS SHOT IN LAND QUARREL

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Four Japanese, two men and two women, were shot and killed this afternoon on a truck farm five miles west of San Fernando as the result of a heated quarrel over land leases, according to reports at the sheriff's office here.

S. Nakamura, a Japanese farmer, ran amuck with a revolver, killing a Japanese farmer, and his wife on an adjoining farm and then returned to his own house, where he shot and killed his own wife and committed suicide.

Slayer of Schick Is Confined In Folsom

SAN DIEGO, May 23.—E. Drew Clark, under sentence of life imprisonment for the murder of George Schick, wealthy realtor, will be taken to Folsom prison today.

An appeal is still pending, Sheriff Byers said, but Clark requested that he be kept no longer in the San Diego county jail. The prisoner believes he will be less ill at ease in Folsom, it was said. Should a re-trial be granted he will be returned from the penitentiary.

RICH YOUTH POISONED, BELIEF

Police Unable to Find Any Wounds Causing Death Of Millionaire's Son

CHICAGO, May 23.—In their search for the slayer of Robert Franks, 13-year-old son and heir of Millionaire Jacob Franks, whose body was found yesterday stuffed into a sewer opening, police today were confronted with the baffling fact that not a wound had been found on the lad's body which would even indicate that he had been slain.

The body was found yesterday in a muddy ditch. Investigators were, however, well started on the theory that the boy was poisoned, and that abrasions found on his head were made when he was dragged, probably from an automobile, to the spot where he was found.

Forced Down Throat?

The peculiar bluish tinge to the features of the body, Kensington police said, indicated to them that some heavy metallic poisoning, probably a mercury derivative, had been forced down young Frank's throat by his slayer. Medical evidence to a brutal attack on the boy has been furnished.

Vital organs taken from the body were sent to a chemist early today for analysis. Results of this examination were expected to be ready for presentation when a coroner's jury convened this afternoon.

Doctor In Doubt

Just before the coroner's inquest opened this afternoon, Coroner's Physician Joseph Springer declared after a second examination of the body that he was not at all certain the lad was a victim of a vicious assailant.

The murder of the lad was undoubtedly committed by a man of low moral type, who lured Robert into a room, Samuel Ettleson, a friend of the Franks family, asserted today. He also expressed the belief that the boy had gone willingly with his abductor.

Lips Are Sealed

"We believe," said Mr. Ettleson, "that Robert recognized his attacker and either put up a fight or threatened exposure. For this, we believe, he was slain, probably by being forced to drink poison."

"The body was then taken to the place where it was found. The kidnapping and ransom plot was concocted to hide the real facts."

Police were in search of the owner of a typewriter, who, according to a typewriting expert, typed the extortion letter which directed Jacob Franks, the boy's father, to pay $10,000 for his release. According to this expert the letter was typed by a man quite familiar with the typewriter, for it was carefully and correctly done.

Naval Committee Head Disagrees With Wilbur

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The condition of the United States navy is not as bad as it has been painted, the Senate was informed this afternoon by Senator Hale, Republican, of Maine, chairman of the naval affairs committee, in an exhaustive analysis of present day conditions.

"Ship for ship," Hale said "with the exception of our two oldest ships, our battle-ships are of greater tonnage, carry more or heavier guns and are more heavily armored than the present British ships. Their speed, however, is somewhat less than that of the British ships and the same is true to a lesser extent in comparison with the ships of Japan."

His report to the Senate was in marked contrast to the report rendered by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, who admitted that the navy has shrunk to the point where it is now 5-4-3 compared with Great Britain and Japan, instead of 5-5-3 fixed at the arms conference.

"As a matter of fact," said Hale, "we are nearer a 5-5-3 ratio right now than we were when the treaty was signed."

Hale's report to the Senate created a marked surprise. It was listened to with rapt attention by the Senate because of the alarming nature of recent reports on the navy's condition.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Secretary Wilbur's report, showing the weakness of the United States navy, was formally laid before Congress today by Representative Britten, Republican of Illinois, under instructions from the House naval affairs committee.

Submitted in reply to a request from Congress, the report shows that the ratio of the American, British and Japanese navies, supposed to be 5-5-3 is, in reality, 5-4-3, with the United States in second place.

BRITISH ARE ATTEMPT TO SILENT ON U.S. NAVY

Wilbur's Report Regarded as Lever to Secure Money For More Ships

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service.

LONDON, May 23.—British admiralty officials refused today to comment upon American Secretary of the Navy Wilbur's report that the United States navy ranks second to the British navy, but it was learned that the British government will not try to meet any additional appropriation for naval expansion that the American Congress may make.

Officials of the British admiralty hold that Secretary Wilbur's criticism of the American navy is purely an American domestic affair.

'Play Up' Report
Naval experts are inclined to believe that the American report was intended as a lever to Congress to appropriate money for American naval expansion.

It is claimed here that Great Britain is still below the limits of the Washington conference treaty, both in numbers of ships and personnel.

British newspapers conspicuously "played up" the report of Secretary Wilbur upon the relative strength of the American, British and Japanese navies.

Watch Navy Plans
The Evening News headlined its story: "America's sea power alarm! Remarkable report of Secretary Wilbur."

The Wilbur report does not agree with the general admiral report which showed the naval strength of America, England and Japan to be equal.

Leaders in the House of Commons are closely watching American naval developments. Some members, under the leadership of Lieutenant-Commander J. M. Kenworthy, are striving to use the American developments as a lever to force another arms conference.

Methodists Vote to Elect Five Bishops

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 23.—With four bishops chosen when the Methodist general conference resumed today, balloting was begun on the election of the last of five prelates to be named by the conference. The eighth ballot showed Rev. R. J. Wade, Evanston, leading with 434 votes, but 542 were necessary for election.

The bishops already chosen are Rev. George A. Miller, head of the Panama mission; Rev. Dr. George Lowie of Omaha, Neb.; secretary of the board of foreign missions; Rev. Dr. George R. Gross of Green Castle, Ind., and president of DePaul university, and Rev. Dr. Benton T. Badley of India.

The appointment of the committee came after a discussion of the general school situation. The meeting last night was the first joint session of the two school boards, other than those held with the representatives of the up-country districts.

All members of both boards were present, D. J. Hibben, Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, E. H. Learned and Harry W. Chase, of the city Board of Education and Albert D. Pearce, H. W. ### Modernists Defeated In Church Assembly

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 23.—The ousting of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick from the Presbyterian pulpit he occupies in New York, and a complete rout of modernists in the church, was predicted today, following the announcement that Dr. Clarence E. Macartney, moderator-elect of the Presbyterian general assembly, had named ultra-fundamentalists to the chairmanships of the important church committees.

Dr. Mark A. Matthews of Seattle, Wash., was named chairman of the committee on church policy, another important office.

SCIENTIST FEARS VOLCANO'S MENACE

HONOLULU, May 23.—Conditions at Kilauea volcano, which has been in eruption for three weeks, have become alarming, in the opinion of Roy E. Finch, volcanologist, who has been studying the phenomena. Three violent eruptions have occurred within the past twenty-four hours, one of which hurled rocks two miles. The violent steam pressure which is being generated beneath the mountain is indicated by the constant earthquakes registered by the seismograph at Volcano house.

SENATE CLEARS WHEELER OF CHARGES

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Democrat, of Montana, under indictment in his home state for alleged illegal use of his official position, was exonerated of the charges this afternoon by a formal vote of the Senate. Adopting a report submitted by Senator Borah, Republican, of Idaho, chairman of a Senate committee which is investigating the indictment, the Senate decided there was no evidence to show that Wheeler should be expelled from the Senate. The Montana indictment, which Wheeler charges was a "frame up," engineered by the department of justice and the Republican national committee, alleges that he accepted money to represent a Montana oil company before the interior department.

ISLAND BEAUTY IS SPOILED BY COMMERCIALISM

Splendors of Catalina in Bygone Days Recalled by Witty Yarn

By 'OLD TIMER,'
 Of The Evening News Staff.
 "I love the sea with its ceaseless roar
 But I love it best when safe on shore."

This was the contribution of a journalist, as he styled himself, of the Glendale News staff in 1908 on the return from a trip to Catalina Island on "Cap." Mock's launch.

Even at that date the journalist deplored the fact that Catalina becomes more easily attainable year by year and likewise "less select," and further recalls a visit to the islands 20 years previous, finding two human beings, several thousand sheep and "not much else to speak of."

The journalist, as he styled himself, (but the article in question has the earmarks of a well known city official of the present day, formerly owner of The Glendale News), bemoans the fact that civilization and commercialism are obtrusively in evidence around Avalon and further philosophizes in a very charming whimsical way:

"Walt Whitman never visited Avalon but he might have done so as well as not. Captain Mock would have taken him over on the nearest launch that ever sailed the waters blue, and stopped right short too when the gasoline became exhausted. Whitman would have climbed to the summit of "Black Jack" and come down with a complete poem "Splints of Rock" which would have read:

The Sailor's Dream
 "I sit on the top of a hard cold rock with my feet bare, nor stocking or shoes, nothing but sunburn on them and I think, I think of the sea that stretches out before me and behind me and beneath, that is full of sardines, devil fish, dog fish, crabs, rock cod, albacore, tom-cod and whales. I see men in boats, in bathing suits, bob-tail, spike-tail and other coats, I see horses, cattle, automobiles, I see snakes," and then Walt would have gone home and sold the lyrical output for $1.25 with commendations from Tennyson, Swinburne, William Jennings Bryan and Carrie Nation."

The journalist who was accompanied on this eventful trip by the city clerk of Glendale and the postmaster, further describes the trip:

"The voyage over to the island was uneventful but a difficulty in landing was explained by the fact that the Isthmus "was temporarily displaced" but was run down after a pretty warm chase. Several weak minded albacore got caught on some hooks that were carelessly thrown overboard and had to be hauled on board for repairs. The postmaster and city clerk being delegated to relate the fish stories and the journalist to deal with facts. It was a beautiful and successful voyage and deserves to be embalmed in verse."

OUTLINES WORK ON CHILD LABOR BILL FOR YEAR

Report of Mrs. J. R. White, Jr., Given at Convention in Pasadena

One of the outstanding reports given at the convention of the California Congress of Mothers' and Parent-Teacher association this week in Pasadena, was that given by Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., of Glendale, state chairman of child labor.

Mrs. White's report gave in comprehensive form the scope of her work during the past year. She stated that during the year she had made an effort to bring before those interested the work of the national child labor committee. This organization, incorporated by act of Congress in 1907, has been the largest single factor in bringing about the gratifying improvements in child labor conditions in America.

Makes Direct Appeal

In January Mrs. White wrote to California's representatives in Washington, expressing to them the confidence placed in them to support the child labor amendment to the constitution and asking them to urge other representatives to support the measure. She received nine answers, eight congressmen and one senator. Senator Shorridge introduced the bill in the senate.

To Mrs. White's gratification the amendment passed the House of Representatives by a vote of more than four to one. Efforts were made to exempt children employed on farms, according to the report, but the amendment was voted down. Nearly all the votes cast against the amendment came from the south, the report stated.

Assisted Club Workers

Other work done by Mrs. White was writing letters to various Parent-Teacher Association members in response to requests for material and facts on child labor. She also addressed three Glendale

OMIT STAR FROM PHYSICIAN'S SUIT

Lew Cody Not Cast for Role Of Co-respondent In Mayo Complaint

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Lew Cody, film star, refused a new role today. Cody had been mentioned as co-respondent in a suit for divorce brought by Dr. Woodward B. Mayo against Mary Wood, but it was pointed out today, contrary to published reports, that the film star had not been actually named as co-respondent in the physician's suit.

In the complaint filed by Dr. Mayo it was charged that he tapped a wire leading into his wife's room and heard Cody call Mrs. Mayo, asking her to come to see him. She accepted the invitation, the husband charged, remaining away from home until 2 o'clock in the morning.

Two Clad In Golf Array Have Close Escape at School

A free-for-all disrobing contest was narrowly averted at Broadway High school when the noon bell rang, saving two unlucky "studies" from considerable embarrassment and loss of wardrobe.

The two boys were in a restaurant across the street from the school. Unfortunately they wore golf knickerbockers, golf socks and shoes. The masculine student body of the school objected to the golf apparel and decided to relieve the wearers of it. About twenty boys waited at the back door of the restaurant, while another gang covered the front door. Their plans were thwarted, however, when the bell rang, forcing them to leave and go to their classes. The unlucky duo in the restaurant were later escorted back to the school by George U. Moyse, principal. Neither wore golf knickerbockers today.

Swimmers Must Bring Own Suits to Party

Formal announcement was made today by Assemblyman Frank C. Weller of 1012 East Lexington drive that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination to succeed himself as assemblyman from the Sixty-First district, subject to the vote of the primary, August 26, 1924.

In the two years that Assemblyman Weller has represented this district in the state legislature, he has been a tireless worker for Glendale. It was he who introduced and secured passage of the sewer bill that made possible the contract now in effect between this city and Los Angeles, whereby a $1,600,000 sewer is being constructed.

As chairman of the committee on military affairs, he has been a leader in upholding and strengthening the defenses of this state, and is, in addition, a member of the following Assembly committees: Judiciary, governmental efficiency and economy, corporations, universities, labor and capital, and public morals.

When Assemblyman Weller ran for office two years ago, his broad circle of friends and the leading Glendale organizations with which he is associated gained for him the confidence of the general public. Among those representative organizations of which he is a member are: American Legion, Elks, Knights of Pythias, Los Angeles Bar association, Federated Brotherhood of Glendale, of which he is president, and First Methodist Episcopal church.

ENGLISH FATHER ASKS POLICE TO FIND GIRL HERE

Fraser and Royle Praised In Cordial Letter for Locating Daughter

One of the strangest coincidences ever brought to light in local police circles has resulted from the search for an English girl conducted by Chief of Police John D. Fraser and Lieutenant William J. Royle.

In the cold-blooded police way it is docketed simply as "missing person," but behind this entry on the blotter is a tale of blood relationship and similarity in names that link together persons separated by several thousand miles of land and water.

The girl in question is Miss Ethel Harit, 28, of 1113 Linden avenue, daughter of John Harit, Hampden Club, Hampden street, London, N. W. She came to California from England three years ago, and settled in Los Angeles. Her stay there was not long, however, and for some time she has made her residence in Glendale.

Letters Home Cease

She corresponded regularly with her father and told him of her happiness in this wonderful country. But shortly before Christmas her letters stopped, and the anxious father, on March 24, wrote to Chief of Police Fraser asking his assistance in locating his daughter. He feared that she had been the victim of an accident or foul play and in a strange country no one had been able to notify him of the situation.

Lieut. Royle was detailed by the chief to investigate. He

GLENDALE NEEDS MORE TREES

The humblest dwelling may be inviting and homelike if it is shaded by a tree. The costliest mansion has not this quality if it lacks the softening effect of the shade of trees around it. A vista, be it ever so commonplace, glimpsed through an avenue of big trees that line a street of homes takes on beauty and restfulness. A street bare of trees, no matter how magnificent the homes, can never be really beautiful or inviting.

Travelers in foreign lands tell us of the majestic trees that distinguish and adorn many of the great cities of the old world. Our own Washington is renowned not alone for its stately buildings but also for the wonderful trees that line its streets.

There are those who regard trees so highly as to shrink from the sight of a stately monarch of the forest laid low. It is truly a sad sight to one who has the slightest regard for the wonderful and the beautiful in nature to drive through the redwood forests in Humboldt county, and, at places, see the ruthless destruction of the big trees that have been thousands of years growing. But, we have at last been aroused to the shame that will attach to the state if this destruction is allowed to continue, and many loyal men and women, notably among them Mrs. R. W. Meeker of Glendale, are working for the preservation of the redwoods. Public-spirited people are buying these groves and presenting them to the state.

If there is one criticism to be made of Glendale as a city of homes, it is our lack of trees. Once in a while it may be necessary to sacrifice a tree in the interest of progress, but often, with a little trouble, the tree could be saved and added greatly to the appearance of the surroundings. Subdividers who have opened tracts in Glendale have, on the whole, shown rare good sense in saving the trees on the land and in some cases have made capital of them, and rightly so. Certainly a tree, representing years of growth, should add to the value of almost any property. But many tracts that have been opened throughout Southern California are totally bare. If there were any trees on the land to start with, the first thought of the subdivider has been to slay them. Why is a tree a detriment to a lot and what man buying land on which to build a home would not prefer a shady spot to a sun-baked square?

An avenue of magnificent eucalyptus trees planted years ago by the late Lucky Baldwin were nearly all sacrificed to somebody's whim. People who had bought homes on that street on account of the trees had to give up their trees because trees in the parking do not belong to the owner of the property adjoining.

This is an out-door land, but Southern California needs more trees, trees to reflect the sunshine of winter and to soften the effect of our bare, brown hills in summer. A tree does not grow over night, even here in California. Some of the giant redwoods have been growing since before the time of Christ. Many of our own eucalyptus and live oaks are upwards of a hundred years old and perhaps older, yet there are those who can see these magnificent giants murdered, without a qualm.

Let us save our trees, all of them. We each have our favorites, but others may like those we do not care for. The eucalyptus is not symmetrical, but artists find it unsurpassed as regards form. The pepper is a dirty tree, but its feathery leaves and bright berries are cheerful. The live oak and sycamore are majestic. The palm, while not beautiful, is typical of this semi-tropical land and not without charm. Some species of acacia are very pretty; the jacaranda, the camphor, the magnolia and others, as well as some of the fruit trees, are ornamental and especially suitable for this section of the country.

A city of homes should be a city of trees. Let us save what we have and plant more.

SUMMER EXCURSIONS

The transcontinental trains that left the east on the first day of the summer excursion rates have arrived, bearing thousands of visitors to Southern California. Other trains are following, daily, bringing a golden stream of well-financed travelers.

This highly desirable immigration will continue until September. In the aggregate, hundreds of thousands of guests will be entertained this summer in the balmy Southland. A few years ago easterners regarded Southern California as a good place to stay away from in the summer months. Now they know it is a good place to visit.

Nowhere else so far south is the climate so refreshing. Laved by cool breezes from the gentle Pacific and swept by fragrant winds from the snowy Sierras, Southern California is at its best in summertime—and the entire United States is learning this.

Scores of thousands of this tourist throng now coming will remain. Many, who came last summer to look, saw and were conquered. This year they come to stay. So it will be next year, and so every year, increasingly, as Southern California grows and her fame spreads. What was once the winter playground of the few is becoming the all-year-round home of the many.

THE HARD JOB

If one has a difficult or disagreeable task to perform there is no better or more satisfactory plan of procedure than to get at it and do it at once. Worrying about it and dreading it helps not a bit, but only serves to make the work seem more onerous.

Some one has said that it is an American characteristic to get the hard job done as soon as possible. At any rate it is a good trait. It is the spirit that was shown by the American boys in the late war. They were not fighters but they had a job of fighting to do, and they were eager to get to the front, get at it and get it over. It is just as good policy in tasks of less moment and importance. Satisfaction, exhilaration and strength for the next hard task come from a difficult job well done. Postponement only weakens the individual and dread and worry exaggerate the difficulties of the work.

Daily there appears in The Glendale Evening News a "box" in which some local resident states why he or she is making this city his or her home. The reasons are many and varied. They show that Glendale has a lot of attractions—that this city is an ideal home place.

Glendale's automobile industry is a big factor in the prosperity of the city. Practically every car is represented and the dealers have a huge investment.

Glendale avenue, with all "wrinkles" ironed out of the paving, rapidly is becoming a busy thoroughfare.

THE FACE AT THE WINDOW

Uniforms and Actualities

By DR. FRANK CRANE

In civil life it is not as it is in military. In the army and navy, uniforms grow more splendid as you rise in rank, from the khaki of the common soldier to the blaze of color and splendor of majors, epaulettes and gold lace which compose a major general, especially in some Balkan army.

But it is only with destroyers that splendor increases with rank; in constructive affairs the most gorgeous officer is probably door-opener for carriages or top sergeant of the elevator brigade.

Conductors, station agents and brakemen wear uniforms and brass buttons. The president of the railroad sits around in his shirt-sleeves.

The law even seems to hold, in a measure, with women; as much as any law can manage to hold with women.

For, if a feminine creature wears a robe too gaudy and jewels too dazzling, we are quite sure that she has not arrived; a woman of wealth and old family spends fabulous sums on dressmakers to achieve the distinction of subdued tones and the haughtiness of modesty.

The same may even be observed in the church where the Episcopal effulgence of the servant contrasts strongly to the workman's clothes of the Master.

Out of all these instances there emerges a general law that real power tends to silence, while noise indicates hollowness.

An empty drum is more alarming than a sand-bag.

So it is with the spirit of man wherein the noblest qualities seem to clothe themselves with modesty, while forwardness, boasting and the love of prominence suggest the shallow mind.

If there is a Deity, some Being who controls all things and is the Almighty Source of every force known, He is certainly more shy than any creature He has made. The thunder roars, the waves boom upon the shore, lions roar and parrots screech, but He who is behind and above all these, Who made them and will end them at His pleasure, is but a still small voice that only the inner ear of meditation can detect.

Wisdom is modest, goodness is unconscious and love is like the deeps of the sea.

The most striking characteristic of the gentleman is that he is gentle.

JAPANESE IN HAWAII (From Redlands Facts)

The editor of The Facts has had the privilege of conversing recently with a friend just back from a stay of some weeks in the Hawaiian Islands, and as he is a keen observer of things, his ideas on the Japanese immigration question as affecting those islands, and the views of the white people who live there, are of interest.

This friend found the islands literally overrun with Japanese. Not only have the little brown people come in great numbers, but they have multiplied the same way. The streets of the same cities and towns of the islands throng with little dark skinned children, the schools are kept practically empty for them, the white people are compelled to send their children to private schools maintained for whites only in order to secure the segregation they desire. It is estimated that within just a few years the voting population of the islands will be controlled by the Japanese.

There born, and therefore American citizens and entitled to vote. Many people there look with something of apprehension on that coming situation, for it means that the Japanese can, if they desire, elect all the officers who are elective. True, Hawaii is not now a state and her governor is therefore appointed by the President. It is the great hope of the whites on the island that this status will not be changed; that at least the central government will remain in the control of the white people of the nation, if not of the islands. It is looked forward to as altogether likely that in a few years the mayors of the cities of these oceanbound areas will be Japanese, and undoubtedly time will show things governmentally in Hawaii we cannot now foresee.

It is an interesting thing suggested by the same source of information that the Japanese are not marrying with other races in the islands. It was not unusual for a Japanese man to marry one of the native women, but the children of such unions were not of high standard, and the practice has been abandoned. The Japanese now bring their own mates. On the other hand, the Chinese mate with the Hawaiians and their progeny are strong and fine, better than either of the parents.

RIGHTS OF MAN (From San Bernardino Sun)

Democracy has a monopoly over less than one-half of mother earth's inhabitable lands, but monarch is losing its ancient grip upon the remaining half. The increasing number of republics arouses suspicions of the spread of the principle of self-government, but corroboration of these suspicions has come only now. That corroboration was the announcement of the suspension of the publication of the "Almanach de Gotha," the "who's who" of European royalty and nobility.

It goes without telling that the world-wide depression in the king business is the cause for the abolition of the index to Europe's royal genealogy. Surviving noblemen and ladies-in-waiting are insufficient in numbers to fill the Almanach of a most limited edition. Since, and before England's Magna Charta the common people have slowly become conscious of the truth of the divine right of man and of the fallacy of the divine right of kings. The only divine right recognized by the new world of man is that of individual superiority. Blue blood descent is of no avail to the man who would be a leader of men today. It is a popular by-word of modern men that "we don't care what your forefathers were; what are you?"

The day is fast rising above the horizon of human existence when no man will permit himself to be called subject or will degrade himself by calling another king and master. When that day comes the last war for personal aggrandizement will have gone.

VALUE OF WIDE STREETS (From Santa Ana Register)

Former War Secretary Baker says two of the greatest perils to city development are high buildings and narrow streets. Both endanger life and health and impede traffic. Given a narrow street bordered with skyscrapers, any city is inviting accident and hindering further expansion. He quotes the late President

Smith of the New York Central as saying that "railroads never plan broadly enough." It is so with cities, says Mr. Baker.

It is hard to imagine the main street of any growing city as being too wide. No matter how absurdly wide a thoroughfare may look in a small town, the time will probably come when it will be needed to carry the traffic developed. And such streets, as every thriving community finds, tend to justify themselves by the fact that, by the very ease with which they accommodate traffic, they promote the growth and eventually fill themselves to capacity.

A narrow street inevitably squeezes out business and population.

ENDURING FRIENDSHIP (From San Francisco Chronicle)

The friendship between Canada and America, which has endured for more than a century, was pledged anew at Washington. The occasion was the hanging of a painting of the late President Harding, the gift of the Vancouver, B. C., Sun, to the newspapermen of the United States.

Really, there never has been a feeling between the two nations that they were a people separate and apart. Although they dwell under different flags, their interests are more or less in common. Their purposes, their ideals, are pretty much alike. They are neighbors of the character whose admiration and respect for each other are too strong to be swayed by petty and inconsequential bickering. No fortified fences mark their dividing boundary line. The happy and friendly relations existing between Canada and the United States set an example the rest of the world might follow with advantage.

So sit till morning! when the light is grown
That he the path may read,
Then bid the man God-speed!
His morning is not thine; yet must thou own
They have a cheerful warmth—those ashes on the stove.

The People —of— Anytown Character Sketches

If there was a word that would characterize Anytown in the days I was a part of it, it was loyalty. Anytown was true to itself. Of course, like all small places, we were proficient in the art of gossip, but when it came down to brass tacks we could excuse and overlook a lot on the part of our fellow citizens.

But there was one among us whom Anytown despised. He grew up with us, 'oo, and we hated to think that Bart Morris was a skunk. Morris was what is known as a "good fellow." He always had money to treat his cronies when they met at the corner saloon. But when it came to food and clothing for his children he wasn't there with the dough. Bart boasted that he never got drunk and we had to give him credit for that, though we used to say it might be better for his wife and family if he did, for some men are kind to their families when they are drunk.

Bart Morris had two personalities—one for home use and one for the outside world. He contributed little, if any, to the support of his family, and his poor wife nearly wore her fingers to the bone on the wash board in order to feed her children and make them sufficiently presentable to send to school. She, herself, scarcely ever left her home, for she had no clothing that was suitable. George Barnes, who lived next door to the Morris family, used to tell us how cruelly Bart treated his family. It was no secret to Anytown. News travels rapidly in a small place and we had plenty of evidence over a wide span of years that Bart was a brute in his family relations. He was what was then known as a "drummer," but he wasn't on the road much. He worked enough to keep himself in clothes and spent the rest of the time playing pool in the corner saloon.

Outside of his home Morris was a "perfect gentleman." Strangers were completely fooled by his manner and bearing. He was neat and, unlike his wife, was always well dressed. He was small, blonde and good-looking; a good deal of a dandy, but he always stopped just short of foppishness. Good taste would describe his appearance and manner. He was well educated and well read—a good talker and a good mixer. His courtesy to both men and women seemed innate and his smile was so disarming that we often treated him white when we really wanted to kick him.

Bart boasted of his children and seemed very fond of them. We never could tell whether he thought he was deceiving the people of Anytown in his Dr. Jekyll-Mr. Hyde life or not. Being of average intelligence, he must have known that his reputation was public property in Anytown. At any rate, he was pretty nifty to put up such a respectable front for so many years. Bart was a queer citizen. I heard that he left Anytown when his wife died and that his children were sent to an asylum.

The After House

By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

THE STORY

Dr. Ralph Leslie, just graduated from medical college, ships on the yacht Ella as deck steward. He is penniless and thinks this will be a good opportunity to recuperate from an attack of typhoid fever. Marshall Turner is the owner. His wife, her sister Elsa, a divorcee named Mrs. Johns, and a man named Vail are the passengers. There is a crew of fourteen, including the stewardess, a maid, the cook and Williams, the butler. Charlie Jones, a German sailor with a bent for religion, is friendly to Leslie. Captain Richardson and Turner have an argument over running the ship. Turner, drunk, appoints Singleton captain. Richardson knocks Singleton down. Mrs. Johns asks Leslie to sleep near the passengers' staterooms, in a pantry, as she is afraid of trouble. One night Schwartz, the second mate, disappears overboard, though nobody sees him jump. On the night of August 12 Leslie wakes in the pantry to find himself locked in. Vail, Captain Richardson and the Maid, Karen, are found murdered with an axe. The men put Leslie in charge, and they decide to head back to port. The axe is found where it was flung into the stewardess' berth. She says that Karen had been roused by a bell in the night, she thought Mrs. Turner's, but Mrs. Turner says she did not ring. Karen told the stewardess she thought Turner, who had annoyed her, was outside the door. She opened the door, screamed and fell dead. Mrs. Sloan said she saw a figure in white in the door throw the axe toward her. The crew immons Singleton. Leslie and Burns share responsibility for keeping discipline. They lock the axe in the captain's cabin and Leslie takes the key. They put the bodies in a lifeboat. Leslie sees Elsa pick up the pantry key in Turner's room. She tries to throw it into the sea, but Leslie sees her and she gives it to him. At night Adams, in the crew's nest, says he has seen a white figure crawling along the deck. He hurled down a marlinespike, which disappears, but is found next day fastened over the side of the ship. Then one night Burns is knocked unconscious, the key is taken from his neck, the captain's cabin is opened and the axe disappears, with its sure evidence of finger-prints. The Ella docks at Philadelphia, where MacWhirter, Leslie's friend and classmate, meets him. Singleton is put on trial for murder. The different members of the crew and the passengers are questioned.

XXIX—THE THING

I deserve no credit for the solution of the Ella's mystery. I have a certain quality of force, perhaps, and I am not lacking in physical courage; but I have no finesse of intellect. MacWhirter, a foot shorter than I, round of face, jovial and stocky, has as much subtlety in his little finger as I have in my six feet and a fraction of body.

All the way to the river, therefore, he was poring over the drawing. He named the paper at once.

"Ought to know it," he said, in reply to my surprise. "Sold enough paper at the drug-store to qualify as a stationary engineer." He waved a hand at his habit over his jokes, and then fell to work at the drawing again. "A book," he said, "and an axe, and a gibbet or gallows. B-a-g—that makes 'bag.' Doesn't go far, does it? Humorous duck, isn't he? Any one who can write 'ha! ha!' under a gallows has real humor. G-a-b, b-a-g!"

The Ella still lay in the Delaware, half a mile or so from her original moorings. She carried the usual riding-lights—a white one in the bow, another at the stern, and the two vertical red lights which showed her not under command. In reply to repeated signals, we were unable to rouse the watchman. I had brought an electric flash with me, and by its aid we found a rope ladder on the side, with a small boat at its foot.

Although the boat indicated the presence of the watchman on board, we made our way to the deck without challenge. Here MacWhirter suggested that the situation might be disagreeable, were the man to waken and get at us with a gun.

We stood by the top of the ladder, therefore, and made another effort to rouse him. "Hey, watchman!" I called. And MacWhirter, in a deep bass, sang lustily: "Watchman, what of the night? Neither of us made any perceptible impression on the silence and gloom of the Ella.

MacWhirter grew less gay. The deserted decks of the ship, her tragic history, her isolation, the darkness, which my small flash seemed only to intensify, all had their effect on him. "It's got my goat," he admitted. "It smells like a tomb." "Don't be an ass." "Turn the light over the side, and see if we fastened that boat. We don't want to be left here indefinitely."

"That's folly, Mac," I said, but I obeyed him. "The watchman's boat is there, so we—"

But he caught me suddenly by the arm and shook me. "My God!" he said. "What is that over there?"

It was a moment before my eyes, after the flashlight, could discern anything in the darkness. Mac was pointing forward. When I could see, Mac was ready to laugh at himself.

"I told you the place had my goat!" he said sheepishly. "I thought I saw something duck around the corner of that building; but I think it was a ray from a searchlight on one of those boats."

"The watchman, probably," I said quietly. But my heart beat a little faster. "The watchman taking a look at us and gone for his gun."

I thought rapidly. If Mac had seen anything, I did not believe it was the watchman. But there should be a watchman on board—in the forward house, probably. I gave Mac my revolver and put the light in my pocket. I might win both hands that night. I saw better without the flash, and, guided partly by the bow light, partly by my knowledge of the yacht, I led the way across the deck. The forward house was closed and locked, and no knocking produced any indication of life. The after house we found not only locked, but barred across with strips of wood nailed into place. The forecastle was likewise closed. It was a dead ship.

No figure reappearing to alarm him, Mac took the drawing out of his pocket and focused the flashlight on it. "This cross by the mainmast," he said—"that would be where?" "Right behind you there."

He walked to the mast, and examined carefully around its base. There was nothing there, and even now I do not know to what that cross alluded, unless poor Schwartz—

"Then this other one—forward, you call it, don't you? Suppose we locate that."

All expectation of the watchman having now died, we went forward on the port side to the approximate location of the cross. This being in the neighborhood where Mac had thought he saw something move, we approached with extreme caution. But nothing more ominous was discovered than the port lifeboat, nothing more ghastly heard than the occasional creak which which it rocked in its davits.

The lifeboat seemed to be indicated by the cross. It swung almost shoulder-high on MacWhirter. We looked under and around it, with a growing feeling that we had misread the significance of the crosses, or that the sinister record extended to a time before the "devil" of the Turner line was dressed in white and turned into a lady.

I was feeling underneath the boat, with a sense of absurdity that MacWhirter put into words. "I only hope," he said, "that the watchman does not wake up now and see us. He'd be justified in filling us with lead, or putting us in straitjackets."

But I had discovered something. "Mac," I said, "some one has been at this boat within the last few minutes."

"Why?" "Take your revolver and watch the deck. One of the barcases—"

"What's that?" "One of the water-barrels has been upset, and the plug is out. It is leaking into the boat. It is leaking fast, and there's only a gallon or so in the bottom! Give me the light."

The contents of the boat revealed the truth of what I had said. The boat was in confusion. Its cover had been thrown back and tins of biscuit, balters, boat-hooks and extra rowlocks were jumbled together in confusion. The barcases lay on its side, and its plug had been either knocked or drawn out.

MacWhirter was for turning to inspect the boat; but I ordered him sternly to watch the deck. He was inclined to laugh at my caution, which he claimed was a quality in me he had not suspected. He lounged against the rail near me, and, in spite of his chair, kept a keen enough look-out.

The barcases of water were lashed amidships. In the bow and stern were small air-tight compartments, and in the stern was also a small locker from which the biscuit tins had been taken. I was about to abandon my search, when I saw something gleaming in the locker, and reached in and drew it out. It appeared to be an ordinary white sheet, but its presence there was curious. I turned the light on it. It was covered with dark-brown stains.

Even now the memory of that sheet turns me ill. I shook it out, and Mac, at my exclamation, came to me. It was not a sheet at all, that is, not a whole one. It was a circular piece of white cloth, on which, in black, were curious marks—a six-pointed star predominating. There were others—a crescent, a crude attempt to draw that might be either a dog or a lamb, and a cross. From edge to edge it was smeared with blood.

Of what followed just after, both MacWhirter and I are vague. There seemed to be, simultaneously, a yell of fury from the rigging overhead, and the crash of a falling body on the deck near us. Then we were closing with a kicking, biting, screaming thing, that bore me to the ground, extinguishing the little electric flash, and that, rising suddenly from under me, had MacWhirter in the air, and almost overboard before I caught him. So dazed were we by the onslaught that the thing—whatever it was—could have escaped, and left us none the wiser. But, although it eluded us in the darkness, it did not leave. It was there, whimpering to itself, searching for something—the sheet. As I steadied Mac, it passed me. I caught at it. Immediately the struggle began all over again. But this time we had the advantage, and kept it. After a battle that seemed to last all night, and that was actually fought all over that part of the deck, we held the creature sub-

HOLD DRIVERS IN CRASH BLAMELESS

Jury Holds Woman's Death Caused by Unavoidable Accident, Verdict

BURBANK, May 23.—Death by unavoidable accident is the verdict of the coroner's jury that weighed the evidence in the fatal accident sustained by Mrs. M. A. Gates on May 18, when the automobile driven by her husband crashed into a bus driven by Herman R. Bybee. Both Mr. Bybee and Mr. Gates were held blameless.

The jury members were Gregg Summers, G. H. Furman, W. G. Carson, W. B. Herson, R. T. Ackley and D. D. Glasscock.

The inquest was conducted by Deputy Coroner E. L. Greene, with M. A. Barr as official stenographer. Witnesses examined were Mr. Gates, Mr. Bybee, S. H. Blanchard, of Pacoima, R. B. Bryan, of Long Beach, and Mrs. George Wilson, of Pacoima, who were passengers in the stage at the time of the accident; Chief John H. Long of the Burbank police department, who investigated the accident shortly after it occurred, and William A. Gates, brother of Marion Gates.

WORK IS RUSHED ON NEW BUILDING

Seelig Stores, Bungalows Show Business Growth Of Foothill Town

LA CRESCENTA, May 23.—Another business centre is shaping up nicely with the building of the Sam Seelig store, owned by James Smith, at the corner of Los Angeles and Michigan avenues.

Another building to be begun immediately as excavations have just been completed, is that of Frank B. Romo's. This building will be a four-story affair with a brick front. Mr. Romo also plans a twelve-unit bungalow court on his Michigan avenue property, which has a frontage of almost 80 feet and 250 feet on the Los Angeles avenue side. On other property owned by Mr. Romo in this district there will be erected a fifteen-unit court bungalow.

Both Mr. Smith and Mr. Romo have made preparations for the widening of the state highway to 90 feet by setting their buildings back off the line.

The newest fad is the collecting of the handles of Japanese swords.

Bond Issue Will Pay For Five New Schools

LANKERSHIM, May 23.—This district will get five new schools if the voters approve the bond issue before them at the special election of June 3, states Prof. R. M. Killion, supervising principal of the local grammar school, who feels that Lankershim should accordingly go 100 per cent for the bonds.

Elementary schools are planned to be erected on Vineland avenue, near Rio Vista, which will house the pupils in the vicinity of Lankershim park, North Hollywood, Universal City, Rio Vista and the southeast section; one on Ventura boulevard near Pacoima avenue to accommodate the pupils in that section; one on Leesdale or Victory boulevard near Pacoima avenue for North Lankershim, Hewitt and the surrounding territory, and one for Lankershim proper on the present location.

The budget also provides for the purchase of a high school site of from 15 to 20 acres and a building of the first unit of a high school here.

ESTABLISH NEW POULTRY COLONY

Ten-Acre Tract in Sunland Is Site of Enterprise; System Different

SUNLAND, May 23.—A ten-acre tract has been subdivided by the California Home Extension company and is being promoted as a poultry colony, to be operated on plans similar to the Weeks plan that has met with considerable success at Owensmouth. The property is located on Second street north of North street.

The plan is to encourage the raising of poultry on one-acre plots under the intensive system inaugurated by Charles Weeks and already used with success by several local people. Under this plan the hens are not permitted to run in large yards or runs, but are housed in specially built compartments, with a certain number to each compartment. The nests and roosts are so arranged that, it is claimed, the hens get the necessary exercise in this way instead of running over a large piece of ground.

This system permits the poultryman to keep many more birds than under the old system, where the hens are penned in large yards and is said to be more productive in eggs. It is claimed that 2,500 hens can be kept on an acre of land under the system, and at the same time raise nearly all the green feed for them. Several local men have tried this system, planting kale and alfalfa between the rows of hen houses.

The Sunland tract is located between the Sunland mesa and orange grove tracts, and is a piece of gently sloping land exceptionally well fitted for the purpose.

APPROVES DESIGN OF NEW THEATRE

Stockholders Accept Plans Of Building; Contract Will Be Awarded

MONTROSE, May 23.—The stockholders in the proposed theatre building to be erected in Montrose have accepted the new plans for the building, and it is expected the contracts will be let by the end of this week.

The new plan has allowed for a splendid entrance which will be flanked on either side with small stores finished artistically. The body of the theatre is to be large enough to accommodate audiences for some time, as this community is a growing one.

Manager Is Named
R. M. Doyle, who has purchased a home here, will manage the theatre, having lately come from Santa Ana, where he has had large experience in this line.

Practically all the stock subscribed for has been paid in by the following representative men of the community: Theodore Balanger, Stephen Meyers, Mark S. Collins, A. B. Cochran, Clem Moore, George Charbonneau, George Carson, W. R. Campbell, F. R. Harding, J. H. Hart, C. L. Head, R. F. Doyle, Dr. L. Johns and the Leach brothers.

Plan Last Rites for Mrs. Freda O'Donnell

MONTROSE, May 23.—Funeral services for the late Mrs. Freda O'Donnell are to be held at 10 o'clock Saturday morning from the Jewel City Undertaking parlors. Mrs. O'Donnell died on her late husband's birthday.

The deceased leaves a son, A. V. Adkins, at whose home she spent her last months. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Adkins reside at 650 Glendale avenue; two grandchildren, Elmer and Eveline Adkins, are also here.

Interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial park.

Philippine Island Is Hit by Hard Drought

MANILA, May 23.—Manila is the center of a district suffering the worst drought in thirteen years. The water supply is but one-fourth of normal. Religious processions are seen daily in surrounding provinces entreating rain.

REBUILT HOME IS NEARLY COMPLETE

John Steven McGroarty to Return for Dedication of New Residence

TUJUNGA, May 23.—Only a few finishing touches remain to be done and the new home of John Steven McGroarty will again be ready for a house-warming. Again, because a few months ago his $20,000 residence caught fire and burned to the ground less than 24 hours after 5,000 friends had participated in a happy night in their new home and house-warming party there. Mr. and Mrs. McGroarty spent but one awake to find it in flames, barely managing to save part of the household goods. All of the author's papers were destroyed in the fire.

Work was immediately started to rebuild on the same spot and the work has been rushed by R. J. Smith, who has the contract. Mr. McGroarty is expected to return to his home here this week from San Francisco, where he has been with his mission play. Reports from the north indicate that the invasion was not a success, due to difficulties encountered with the musicians' union of San Francisco.

No announcement has been made of any plans for a formal housewarming, but it is expected that the McGroarty home will be fittingly dedicated, although probably not in such an elaborate manner as was the original building.

CONTRACTOR BUSY BUILDING HOUSES

Many New Valley Structures Being Erected; Weekly Payroll Is $1200

TUJUNGA, May 23.—Completing the McGroarty $20,000 residence, which is scheduled for this week, is but one of several large contracts being fulfilled by R. J. Smith, Tujunga contractor. Nearly fifty men are employed by Mr. Smith at the present time, and he maintains a payroll that amounts to $1,200 per week.

A residence will be built by this firm for Henry Rivers in La Canada, work having already started. Mr. Rivers is the son-in-law of Frank Strong, who has a palatial residence in La Crescenta. The Strong residence has just been extensively remodeled by Mr. Smith.

Other work being done by Mr. Smith is a residence on Los Angeles street, Sunland, for Mr. Nuefeld, who is from New York; a residence at Cedar and El Centro streets for Mrs. Fannie Henderson; improvement work at the Arrowhead Hot Springs hotel near San Bernardino and several smaller buildings in the Tujunga district.

Burbank Trustees to Name Park Commission

BURBANK, May 23.—The result of the recent agitation over cutting down of shade trees on public streets is that a park commission will soon be appointed by the city trustees. The matter was brought to their attention by George Kittinger, Mrs. Walter Fisher and Miss Leseuer.

The matter of the personnel of the commission is felt to be of such great importance that the board proposes to use the utmost care in making the appointments. A commission of this kind will look after the preservation of the trees, and it is for this reason that the matter has been brought to a focus at this time.

PLANS FOR BOWL TOPIC AT PARTY

EAGLE ROCK, May 23.—Various angles of the bowl project were discussed at an informal lawn gathering held yesterday afternoon on the A. G. Reilly grounds at 1750 Colorado boulevard when President Remsen du Bois Bird of Occidental college and Mrs. Bird were the guests of honor.

Mrs. Elgie Lowery Fischer spoke on the "Child Drama Movement" and what the bowl would mean in the development of the children, bringing the many forms of expression the drama calls for. Page Noll spoke on the business side of the proposition, and G. A. Hege, the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce committee to put on a drive for the sale of seats, made a plea for both the Little Theatre and the bowl.

The boys will remain over Friday night and Saturday, doing their own cooking. They will be set free to frolic around, play games until they are weary, or go on well directed hikes where they will be given nature study instructions by their leaders. The trip will be in charge of Mr. James McNary, deputy scout commissioner of Eagle Rock.

Southern California Edison Advises Association Task Is Finished

VERDUGO CITY, May 23.—The Verdugo City Association of Commerce has received official notification from A. B. Wallaber, general manager of the Pasadena offices of the Southern California Edison company, that the company has about completed the work of setting back the new poles on Honolulu avenue from Ocean View to Glenwood avenue. This is to comply with the new boundaries of Honolulu avenue, in accordance with the widening of the road to a 90 foot boulevard. All of the public-spirited property owners of this centre have agreed to the 12-foot frontage needed by the county for this work. Supervisor Henry W. Wright is loud in his praises of Harry M. Fowler for his splendid work in bringing this improvement to pass.

M. E. Brown, realtor, will be without the services of his right hand salesman, E. A. Thomas, who will go east to visit his mother, about July 1. Mr. Thomas has been in the La Crescenta office of Mr. Brown for almost a year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen are motoring up the coast to the big trees. Mr. Hansen went to Bakersfield this week, but the foot and mouth ban prevented his fishing in that district, so he returned home, starting out the next day accompanied by Mrs. Hansen for the big trees.

Fred Anderson, realtor of Montrose, left this morning for an extended trip through Canada and the eastern states. Before leaving he was the guest of honor at a charming dinner given for him by Dr. E. N. Nettleton at his Altura avenue home.

TWO DEATHS ARE TOLL OF TRAGEDY
Jealous Man Shoots Former Wife, Turns Pistol on Husband and Self
LOS ANGELES, May 23.—With the death of Ike Hico, who ran amuck in South Grand avenue, Wednesday, shooting and killing his former wife, Mrs. William Milligan, and seriously wounding her husband of a few days, the toll of the tragic affair today stood at two dead.
Milligan, "the man who came back from the grave," after being reported killed in action during the world war, will live, police surgeons said today. Hico is said to have been seized with a fit of jealous rage when he met his former wife and Milligan opened fire without warning, first shooting Milligan, then his wife and later shooting himself.
Romance of War
Behind the scenes of the actual tragedy was a remarkable Enoch Arden romance of the late war. Milligan married the woman who was shot yesterday in 1907. Later came the war and Milligan went to France. He was reported "killed in action" and Mrs. Milligan a year later married Hico, whom she divorced a year later when she learned he already had a wife and child. A few days ago Milligan, after a year's search found his wife and they were remarried. However, their renewed happiness came to a tragic end when they met Hico yesterday.

METHODISTS ARE GUESTS OF CASA VERDUGO CHURCH

Proposed Union Discussed By Religious Leaders At Local Banquet

Acting as hosts to Methodists from Glendale, Burbank, Montrose and Eagle Rock, the Casa Verdugo Methodist Episcopal church entertained a large crowd in the spacious basement rooms of the church last night, at the second quarterly meeting of the Glendale Methodist Union.

Nathan Newby of Hollywood, prominent Los Angeles attorney, and a leader in the religious work of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, addressed the gathering on the subject of the union between the Methodist Episcopal church north, and south.

Discuss Union
The provision for the union between the two churches was passed a week ago at the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, North, in Springfield, Mass. Mr. Newby discussed the significance of the union in a general way and particularly as to the manner in which it would affect the local churches.

A large representation was present last night from the Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church, South. When the roll of the churches was called, the delegations from each church were enthusiastically in their response.

BABY ABANDONED

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—The body of a ten-hour-old baby, which had evidently died of exposure, was discovered this morning in front of 921-A Crocker street.

Louis Keller, owner of the machine, found the body when he looked in the rear of his car for tools when about to leave his home for work.

FRIENDLY SUIT

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Lila Lee, known in private life as Mrs. James Kirkwood, today filed suit against her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Appel, to clear title to a Hollywood tract. The action is a friendly one.

MINOR OPERATION

A minor surgery operation was performed this morning on Mrs. Jesse E. Smith of 651 North Central avenue, at the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital.

The death rate of 11.8 per 1,000 noted for 1923 is a slight increase over the 1921 rate.

LOWDOWN WILL BE PROTECTED FROM ATTACKS BY AIR

Highly Complicated System of Warning Planned Against Enemies

LONDON, May 23.—Marvelously complicated plans have been prepared by the British Air Ministry for the defense of London against attack from the air.

Guns, searchlights, aerial obstructions, aeroplanes will all cooperate against the attacker. But the actual "control" the "brain" of the defense, will all center in one tiny room just outside London. Here will come warning of the approach of the invader, electrically lighted maps will show his exact whereabouts, and from here will be wireless the word for the massed attack upon him.

It is now a settled policy of the British Air Ministry that ground defenses by themselves are useless against the attacking aeroplane or airship. But it is still held that these defenses, when scientifically directed, can be of the utmost service to the aeroplanes which are defending by the method of attacking first.

Consequently Britain's plan of air defense is divided into two sections, different in kind, but functioning as a unit. The basic idea is that the ground forces take possession of the air from ground level up to about 15,000 feet. Thence, to a height of about six miles, the aeroplane takes charge.

Range Increased

The lower level will be under the control of the ground force, commanded by General Ashmore. The lower space will be so barraged, netted, "mined" and obstructed by secret devices that it will be a practical impossibility for an enemy aeroplane to break through. And these obstructions will be placed at a height regarded as physically impossible during the late war.

As regards the ground batteries, they will throw shells not only far higher than was hitherto deemed possible, but also missiles of discharge, and the facility with which the gunner can handle and range them, will also give them an immense superiority over those used against the German invaders.

One new anti-aircraft gun possessed by the British will fire a high-explosive shell of more than fifty pounds to a height of just over 30,000 feet. Another gun will maintain a barrage up to a height of three miles above the city at the rate of 100 shells a minute.

But the newest feature of London's defence will take the form of sound-detecting instruments for locating invaders at great distances. These machines will print automatically, on a recording strip, a visible warning of the sound waves emitted by an enemy machine miles away. The construction of these instruments is one of the most jealously guarded secrets of the British Government.

Electrical Map
Connected, electrically, with the strip will be a huge, specially designed map of the London defences, covered by numerous tiny electric lights. When the sound-detecting machine locates enemy raiders the electric bulbs will flash, and the map will show the particular area through which the raiders are proceeding. Thus the enemy will himself give clue to his whereabouts.

As to the upper air, a great gridle of the most modern and perfectly equipped aerodromes will encircle London. To each of these will be attached squadrons of the latest types of steel-built fighting aeroplanes, all heavily armed. Some of them can ascend 20,000 feet within eight minutes of leaving the ground.

Practice flights under war conditions take place frequently. Big formations attack against the defence of the latest British single-seater machines. Anti-aircraft guns and searchlights will operate as they would in actual war. And the air force believes that London is now the most scientifically defended, in fact the safest, city in the world.

Motorbikes Urged for Colorado Dry Agents

DENVER, May 23.—The federal government will be asked to provide motorbikes for the use of dry agents for the purpose of aiding in enforcing the dry law in Colorado, according to Carl Jackson, recently appointed division chief of the federal prohibition agents in this district.

The vehicles would be used particularly for mountain work, where automobiles cannot penetrate some of the narrow trails.

"A fleet of motorbikes would go a long way in combating the illegal transportation of liquor in the mountain country," Jackson said.

Teaches Co-eds How To Fence With Cane

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—Mash the mashers with an umbrella, Major Louis A. Kunzle made the suggestion to the 50 Ohio State university freshmen he is training to fence and who, he believes, can become masters of the art as well as men. A cane will do just as well.

"A woman who knows fencing will be able with an umbrella to pass any street corner at any hour in perfect safety," he declared.

A Colorado young man had to marry before Armistice day, 1923, or lose a fortune of $62,000.

Population of Egypt is about 7,000,000.

Harry Lauder Has Ambition to Break Into Solons' Ranks

LONDON, May 23.—The latest ambition of Sir Harry Lauder, famous Scotch comedian, is to become a member of Parliament.

"I have several times been asked to become a candidate," said Sir Harry, "but while I have a strong desire to enter the freedom necessary to devote to the duties. But when I have completed my farewell tour next autumn, I shall, in all probability, stand for election for the House of Commons if the opportunity presents itself."

NAME CURATOR OF HOME ECONOMICS

Mrs. Carl W. Schwitters Is Honored by Election at Club Meeting

Mrs. Carl W. Schwitters, widely known in Glendale for her active interest in club and fraternal affairs, was honored yesterday at the meeting of the Home Economics department of the Tuesday Afternoon club by being chosen curator for the coming year.

Possessed of an attractive personality and unusually capable in executive work, Mrs. Schwitters has served most successfully as noble grand of the Glendale Carleton Rebekah lodge, and as a prominent member of the Women's Auxiliary of the Glendale American Legion post.

She is planning an interesting program of study for the coming year, when the club women of this department will take up many interesting subjects under the general head of home economics.

Mrs. Ernest A. Carr was chosen secretary-treasurer.

The final card party given by the department will be on May 29.

NEW PLANE FLAPS WINGS LIKE BIRD

Austrian Aviation Expert Thinks He Has Solved Takeoff Problem

VIENNA, May 23.—"The ideal flying machine" is claimed to have been invented by Dr. Raimund Nimfuehr, one of the best-known Austrian aviation experts.

He avers that his machine will constitute the cheapest form of communication, and that it will be able to imitate the flight of birds.

In an interview he said that by means of "pulsating planes" his machine will be able to rise and descend vertically and that, owing to a device which secures equilibrium, it will be automatically prevented from being upset or from crashing down.

According to Nimfuehr, the wings can automatically move forward or backward and upward and downward, this work being done by an auxiliary motor.

Nimfuehr calls his device for securing equilibrium a "mechanical brain." It will indicate changes of air pressure, measure the forces disturbing equilibrium and do other useful things now left to the skill of the pilot.

By the use of the pulsating wings the lifting power of the machine is such that it will rise from the earth without any preliminary run across the aerodrome.

Penniless Man Gets Fortune of $100,000

PARIS, May 23.—Dr. Orlando Ellis of Cleveland, Ohio, a dentist, penniless and ill, who has been trying desperately to raise fare home, has received word that he is heir to more than $100,000 through his grandfather's will.

Doctor Ellis came to Europe several months ago to seek special treatment from specialists, but never recovered from the effects of wounds and gassing he received during the war.

Bar Dirty Windows In Soft Drink Parlors

MENOMINEE, Mich., May 23.—The city ordinance abolishing the screen and stained glass windows in places licensed to sell soft drinks is being technically violated here, the city attorney's office has ruled, by the proprietors allowing their windows to become so dirty that officers outside cannot see through them. The police were instructed to order the windows washed.

Faithful Clerks Get Big Business as Gift

NASHUA, N. H., May 23.—Charles H. Avery, dean of Nashua furniture dealers, having been in business more than fifty years, retired last week. He turned over the $100,000 business and buildings to three faithful clerks. Each one of them had been in his employ more than thirty years.

Population of Egypt is about 7,000,000.

SEES THREAT OF BRITISH SEX WAR FROM SPINSTERS

Maiden Ladies Have Gained Immediate Objects But Won't Demobilize

By DAVID M. CHURCH, For International News Service.

LONDON, May 23.—Spinsters are threatening England with a sex war.

F. C. Greaves, president of the National Association of Schoolmasters, makes this charge. Greaves, who has recently complained against the movement for "the canalization of the spinsters," warns the English people that they must awaken anew to the glory of motherhood.

"The real feminist battle has been won," said Greaves. "It was for a cause which deserved, and rightly secured victory, for it was the cause of women as a whole. Women have secured emancipation, equal rights, and, so far as nature and physiology will allow, equal opportunity."

Aims at Campaign
"The advertised objects of the feminist campaign having been secured, it is not surprising that the army is showing a tendency to disperse. There are many, however, who are determined not to be demobilized. They have created a new channel—the spinsters' movement. As a spinsters' movement it is an embittered and a dangerous one."

"Many of its advocates, shall we say, are not so young as they were, and their advocacy is not weakened by time. Maidenly scrupulousness, the leaders are able, educated, not unsophisticated, and they know their immediate objectives. Their ultimate grievance, however, is against Nature—they have been born in the wrong sex. They are beginning to realize this, and they are drifting into sex war."

Their attitude toward society is not that of the willing servant but of the relentless litigant out for damages.

Home Life Degrading
"Their married sister they first envy, then despise and finally claim to speak for. They are ready to regard anything related to domesticity as rather degrading. They pity, rather than honor, the married woman and regard her as one to be rescued by their good offices from the tyranny of husband and home, and to be put on contractual wage and State relief."

"The natural aim of a maid, as of a youth, is marriage. The highest joy of both should ultimately be parenthood. It is because the spinsters are striving to transfer to herself the role that belongs to the mother and child that she is dangerous. Teachers, above all, should have a high conception of family relationship."

"To suggest to our marriageable youths and maidens that the married state is the lonesome life, that the full and free life is the single life, that a 'rust about' is a better acquisition than a perambulation is to do ill service both to them and to the State."

Product of War
"The sex war, should it develop, will be a product of the Great War. It is the result of the slaughter. Could we import a million eligible men into the country we should see no further evidences of its existence. Failing this, however, we must not forget the last word will be with the married woman. When she accuses her sister the spinsters will cease to dominate. And that will be, perhaps, when the evolution of the new movement is almost complete and the first bill for compulsory polygamy is introduced."

Evils of Serum Are Explained by Doctor

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Physicians throughout the United States are being deluged with printed matter from certain drug manufacturers, urging them to use ready-mixed vaccines in diseases which medical authorities so far have found totally unresponsive to treatment.

This was the statement of Dr. S. P. Kramer of Cincinnati, famed for both his skill in medicine and surgery and his pathological researches.

Dr. Kramer is performing a series of experiments at the hygiene laboratories of the United States public health service and is deeply interested in the Rathbone-Copeland bill of advertising in the case of unauthenticated vaccines, serums and toxins.

Against the "vaccine fad" which has become an article of faith not only with thousands of laymen, but with less well informed members of the medical profession in this country, Dr. Kramer is in perfect agreement with investigators of the American Medical association that so-called stock vaccines, put out in quantity and distributed to all sections of the country, should be banned by law.

Says Husband Always Took Liquor to Bed

SACRAMENTO, Cal., May 23.—His husband the right to take his liquor to bed with him? Mrs. Belle Ballentine, a Sacramento bride of a few months, says no and has brought suit for divorce here against G. A. Ballentine.

Mrs. Ballentine claims that her husband took his bottle to bed and imbibed freely almost every night. When she protested, Ballentine told her to find a new bed, she asserts.

HOP PRICE HOPS

SANTA ROSA, Cal., May 23.—Hops, a drug on the market last fall, were sought today at the record-breaking price of 31 cents a pound.

Despite prohibition between 400 and 500 more acres of hops will be grown this year than ever before in Sonoma County, and already 2,000,000 pounds are under contract for from one to three years at prices ranging from 20 to 24 cents.

Blind Woman Can't Flirt, Says Judge In Divorce Trial

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Blindness is a bar to flirting, Superior Judge E. P. Morgan in effect ruled today in granting a divorce to Mrs. Myrtle Oats, blind street singer.

She said her husband, John A. Oats, also blind and a street singer, accused her of flirting with men, who paused to hear her sing. She denied being flirtatious. The husband did not indicate how a blind woman could flirt and Judge Morgan concurred.

GAUDY HOSE ARE PICCADILLY VOGUE

Beautiful Woolens, Studded with Metals, Popular in London Town

LONDON, May 23.—Clothes of knitted silk and wool and "illuminated" stockings, in many startling colors and designs, are features of the summer styles in Piccadilly.

Woolen suits have never been so beautiful. Wonderful dresses, that seem studded with precious metals when the wearers move, have threaded into their silk texture gold and silver lines. Coats are embroidered with patterns executed by artists.

Knitted garments have been made to fulfill a woman's dress needs from breakfast to dinner. Prices have soared, and the plain knitted woolen suit which used to be an economy has become so gorgeous as to be now an extravagance.

Woolen caps that can be brushed until the ends are as fluffy as a curly head have been manufactured for seaside wear. They give the effect of wigs and can be bought in many alarming colors, from mauve to orange.

Light in Color

Stockings are still to be light in color. Sunburn stockings are the correct wear for the summer, and a woman, to be perfectly dressed, must wear hosiery that corresponds in shade to the exact tone of the tan on her face. Shops display short-silk stockings and others with luminous clocks and lace insertions, while there are stockings of gold and silver metal tissue for evening wear.

Many hats are trimmed with scarves. Fan-shaped hats, lavishly trimmed with flowers, promise to be popular.

Suede gloves, trimmed with large bead motifs or edged with colors and cut into nets so that the edges look like flowers, are among the dress accessories.

SCHOOL'S ONE PUPIL

SALINA, Kan., May 23.—Roy Girsch, teacher in school district No. 74, Salina County, is drawing a salary of $90 a month and has one student, Lawrence Malon. There are six or seven other students in the school district, but they are attending school in other districts.

Three students living in the west part of the district attend school in district No. 66, while several others in the south side attend the consolidated school at Glendale.

Successful efforts have been made to have Lawrence Malon go to some other district, but that would throw the teacher, Roy Girsch, out of a job.

The teacher is related to a director of the school board, and Lawrence Malon, the lone student, is a relative of Francis Malon, treasurer, and Seth Malon, clerk of the school board.

MONEY IS CURSED

CINCINNATI, May 23.—A story of bequeathed money tainted by a dead man's curse became known when the Rev. Herbert Huxley, pastor of the Knox Presbyterian church, was notified that the will of Mrs. Little Creed Chaffin of Washington Court House, O., who died a few days ago, gives her estate, estimated at $50,000 for the construction of a new church on condition that her body be interred in its walls.

Mrs. Chaffin left less than $1000 to relatives because of a curse placed on the estate. The curse should fall heir to any of his property by her former husband, Frank A. Chaffin, attorney of Cincinnati and Washington Court House, who died about four years ago.

RAISE GERMAN SHIPS

LONDON, May 23.—Following nearly a year of negotiating for contracts, work has finally begun on the raising of the scuttled German Grand Fleet from the depths of Scapa Flow, Scotland.

The first vessel to be salvaged, a torpedo boat lying in ten fathoms, is expected to be raised in two weeks. The whole project is expected to occupy about eight years and the highest proposition will come when the salvagers attempt to raise the Hindenburg, of 27,000 tons displacement.

TELESCOPE WILL PRODUCE PHOTOS

Wonder Device Soon to Be Installed in Russian Observatory

LONDON, May 23.—The observatory at Simeis, Soviet Russia, will shortly possess one of the world's wonder telescopes.

It is now being finished and assembled at the works of Sir Howard Grubb, famous English telescope maker, and has taken seven years to make.

Contrary to most telescopes, this one has been constructed for taking photographs as well as for vision, so that the astronomer may see what he is photographing.

The telescope, which is estimated to be worth $75,000, contains a mirror forty inches wide, eight and one-half inches thick and weighing nearly 1,000 pounds, which took more than a year of continual grinding and polishing to make. The mirror alone cost $5,000.

The principal eyepiece is not at the lower end of the barrel near the ground, as is usual with the mouth of the telescope. The observer is hauled up some thirty feet from the floor in a steel chair to the eyepiece.

A clock controls the movements of the instrument, and is set so that the star under observation can be kept in sight as it moves across the heavens. The telescope thus moves in an arc inside the dome of the observatory. The arc also moves around as the telescope is operated.

ROTARY REVIEWS BOYS' WEEK WORK

Parade and Ball Game Topic at Weekly Luncheon of Sponsor Club

A review of the Boys' week-end parade and ball game featured the meeting of the Glendale Rotary club yesterday at the Egyptian Village. President J. Herbert Smith called on R. D. White, chairman of the program committee, to take charge and he in turn asked various members for their impressions of the events mentioned.

Rotarians received invitation to attend the bridge opening near San Fernando next Tuesday night; also a letter from the American Legion inviting them to participate in Memorial Day exercises; and officers and committee chairmen were urged to attend a conference of executives in Santa Monica next Saturday.

DISPLAY CLERKS' NAMES, IS ORDER

Post Office Employees Are Identified by Plates Shown at Windows

Orders from the postoffice department at Washington, recently received by the local office, demand that the names of employees be placed over the windows at which they are working. This new order has been issued in order to accommodate the public when doing business with postal clerks, according to D. Ripley Jackson, Glendale postmaster.

He explained that, with the names of the clerks displayed above the windows at which they are operating, the public could easily report faulty service, and complaints could be traced to the proper source. The Glendale office has been one of the first to comply with the new ruling, the name-plates first being used yesterday.

'CLEAN-UP-WEEK' NAMED BY MAYOR

June 1 to 7 Set Aside
For Removal of Weeds,
Unightly Waste

The following proclamation, issued from the office of Mayor Spencer Robinson, asks that all citizens unite in a "clean-up week" from June 1 to June 7, in a drive to rid Glendale of weeds, rubbish and other waste matter.

The resolution is as follows: "Whereas, the best interests of 'The Fastest Growing City in America' demand that its citizens and residents join together in a co-operative movement to clean up brush, weeds, rubbish, and other waste matter in all yards and vacant lots and parkways in the city of Glendale; and

"Whereas, 'Clean-Up Week' has become an annual event in the city of Glendale and the support and co-operation of its citizens in past years has proved its merit;

"Now, therefore, I, Spencer Robinson, mayor of Glendale, do hereby designate the week beginning June 1 and ending June 7 as 'Clean-Up Week,' and do most strongly urge every resident and citizen to extend his or her utmost efforts in ridding Glendale of brush, weeds, and waste matter, that the city may be known as the 'cleanest' as well as the 'Fastest Growing City in America.'"

"In Witness Whereof, I hereby affix my hand and seal this 22d day of May, 1924."

(Seal)
"SPENCER ROBINSON
Mayor of the City of Glendale."

Girl Identifies Man as Death Car Driver

NEW YORK, May 23.—With dramatic emphasis, 13-year-old Barbara Fahs in court identified Harry L. Hoffman as the man who was driving the automobile which, it is charged, as well as the Bauer on the brief journey which culminated in her murder. Hoffman is on trial charged with slaying Mrs. Bauer.

PLANES TO DROP FLOWERY 'BOMBS'

Squadron of Nine Machines
To Fly Above Cemetery
On Memorial Day

A squadron of nine aeroplanes, led by Lieut. C. C. Mosely, commandant of Clover Field at Santa Monica, will circle over Forest Lawn Memorial park during the Memorial Day exercises to be held there following the parade May 30, and drop flowers. Word to this effect was received this morning by E. E. McWain, secretary of the general committee in charge of the arrangements.

The annual Memorial sermon will be given by Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Glendale Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The G. A. R., W. R. C., Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans and the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary will meet in front of the Harvard Street High school shortly before 11 o'clock and march into the church in a body.

Miss Corey Resigns From School Faculty

Miss Mary Corey, who has served so efficiently as instructor in debating at the Glendale High school the past year, presented her resignation to the Board of Trustees last night. It was accepted.

Miss Corey plans to leave as soon as school is out for Europe on a trip that will last six months, and she will not be back in Glendale in time for the opening of the next term in September.

Kentucky Family to Locate in Glendale

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. F. Henry and sons, Charles and John, formerly of Paducah, Ky., arrived in Glendale this week to make their future home.

Mr. Henry was formerly a divisional superintendent of the Prudential Insurance company. They are stopping at the home of their nephew, A. W. Tower, 214 East Park avenue.

CLOSED CONDUIT TO CARRY FLOOD WATERS PLANNED

Estimates of Cost Will Be Given Association at Monday Meeting

The probable cost of a closed concrete conduit to carry flood waters from the end of the Sycamore Canyon wash to beyond Forest Lawn, will be given members of the Southeast Glendale Improvement association by R. Belcher, 605 West Colorado street, at the meeting to be held Monday night, May 26, at the Glendale Avenue Intermediate school.

Mr. Belcher, chairman of a committee named to check up on probable costs, sites, surveys and right of ways for such a conduit, has been busy for several weeks getting this data. It is proposed to build such a conduit to prevent the flood waters of Sycamore canyon from being emptied on the streets of the east and southeast portions of the city.

May Pro-rate Cost
The cost of the conduit, Mr. Belcher finds, will be more than the amount of funds to be received from the flood control bonds. The difference is to be pro-rated among property owners of that section of the city, if one plan suggested is acted upon favorably.

The wishes of the members in this respect will be conveyed to James W. Reagan, county engineer in charge of flood control work.

H. Loren Mitchell, 1241 South Boynton street, is president of the organization, and D. R. Gillin, 626 East Palmer avenue, is secretary.

MURPHY DRAWING CROWDS TO TENT

Comedians Packing House
At Every Performance
In Present Offering

Murphy's Comedians are packing them in at the big tent on North Brand boulevard at California avenue, where their new show, "The Nigger in the Woodpile," is proving their most popular offering thus far. Violet Neitz, the star, has a role exactly suited to her vivacious personality and romps through it as though it were play, which it is for her.

For the audience, "The Nigger in the Woodpile" is even better than play. It has all the fun and none of the exertion. Spectators just sit in their seats and howl with laughter at the funny lines and screaming situations. This is broad comedy and goes straight home.

Change of Program
On Sunday "Nothing But the Truth" will open and will continue up to Wednesday night, May 28, the last night at the present location, states J. A. Menard of Murphy's Comedians.

On Thursday night, May 29, "Nothing But the Truth" will open several blocks farther up Brand boulevard, at the Stocker street corner, in Casa Verdugo.

While the curtain rises each night at 8 o'clock the doors are always open at 7:15 o'clock. Mr. Menard states, allowing everyone an opportunity to get a good seat.

Motorcycle Officer Hurt In Accident

Motor Officer W. O. Hutton was injured last night at the corner of Glendale avenue and Cypress street, when his machine crashed into a car driven by Charles A. Berger. According to Berger's report, he held out his hand to signal a left turn from Glendale avenue into Cypress, and Hutton evidently did not see it. In trying to stop and avoid the collision, Hutton's machine skidded on the street car tracks and struck Berger's car with great force.

The officer was taken to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital where an x-ray will be taken today. Although it is feared that his back has been injured, he was reported as resting easy this morning. Hutton is the second Glendale motor officer to be hurt in the last month. Officer Merle Collins still being in the hospital as the result of a crash on Glendale boulevard three weeks ago.

Oratory Winner Will Speak at Occidental

Donald Tyler, winner of the Pacific coast division of the national interscholastic oratorical contest, and who is awarded a free trip to Washington, D. C., to compete in the finals, will be the speaker at the regular Occidental college weekly assembly next Wednesday morning in the chapel. Donald Tyler has reached the finals after competing in numerous elimination contests. He now has the honor of delivering his winning oration before President Calvin Coolidge at the capital early in June. Tyler is a student at Franklin High school in Los Angeles.

COMMENT That's All

"Why I Live Here"
Training In Loyalty
Retribution Follows
Chance For Fortune

By Gil A. Cowan

One of the most interesting and human series of short items we have ever had the pleasure of reading is the daily box in The Glendale Evening News "Why I Live in Glendale."

No one who has not had the privilege of living in this blessed vale can truly appreciate what is written between the words. Not home alone; not pride in a great city, or a beautiful city, or a wealthy city. No, it is not any one thing that makes Glendale, but many attractions which could be enumerated one by one, days without end.

The writer of this column could fill a volume with pearls of praise for Glendale. So could others. But that would avail only half as much as the words from the heart spoken by the people who contribute "Why I Live in Glendale."

Patriotic programs on the part of the pupils of the schools in commemoration of Memorial day are most fitting. Loyalty cannot be inculcated too early in the child. Respect for the flag, for law and order, will prevent such things as the dynamiting of the Los Angeles aqueduct. Our patriotic orders, and particularly the G. A. R., are to be complimented on the work of teaching the youth of this country the respect that is due the government and the men who fought and died that it might be sustained intact.

The Pasadena Star-News tritely remarks that now the bonus bill has become a law the opponents may as well make the most of it. We might add that one of the propagandists for the anti-bonus league, financed by the bond houses, was asking for a job yesterday.

As an ex-service man we could not see fit to employ him, but rather let him try to get a bonus from the bond dealers.

It would be fit and proper punishment, we believe.

Capital judiciously invested in Southern California today will increase one hundred fold in the next few years, one will hear the real estate lecturer blandly stating to an open-mouthed group of tourists any day in the week.

Strange, but it is true and trite; provided, of course, the word judiciously includes sagacity, foresight and luck. And at that there isn't such a great element of chance in California's future. That is assured.

Hundred-to-one shots are seldom found, but they are right here in Southern California. This country has begun to blossom, as our real estate friend would say. The harbor at San Pedro, the industries of Los Angeles, the development of a great back country, are only in the youthful stage of "stretching" out.

It is the person who is in the pathway of progress, either in real estate or commercial enterprise, who will make the long leap to fortune in a life time. It may be you, or me, or the next one.

Just exactly how are you, personally, taking advantage of this situation? That is the question each and every man should ask of himself each day. For therein lies the secret of opportunity.

Will Confer Degrees On Three Noted Men

The Occidental college 'commencement exercises June 14 this year will be featured by the conferring of honorary degrees on three national and internationally known men. The board of trustees of the institution have extended degrees to Secretary of the Navy Curtis Dwight Wilbur, Henry Edward Huntington and Dr. Comstock of the Pacific Southwest Museum. The degrees conferred will be the LL. D., the highest honorary degree that Occidental gives, on both Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and Dr. Huntington. The degree of Bachelor of Arts will be conferred upon Dr. Comstock.

SEE OIL PROFITS

SEATTLE, May 23.—The increase in the prices of fuel oil here from $1.37 to $1.77 a barrel is expected to result in a profit to oil companies in California on the now stored there of about $50,000,000.

Why I Am In Glendale

For several years we planned to make California our future home. In 1915 we sold an established business in Vineland, N. J. We then sought definite information concerning different localities in Southern California. Former friends had come to Glendale. We wrote to the Chamber of Commerce for information. Secretary Jackson mailed us an extra edition of The Glendale Evening News, with twenty or more pages well illustrated with attractive scenes of Glendale, pictures of public buildings, City Trustees and other officials. It also contained a fund of useful information enumerating Glendale's many advantages as a place of residence. We became interested and came direct to Glendale. We came, we saw, we were conquered. Have visited many surrounding cities since, but Glendale surpasses all.

Glendale the favored vale. Where sunny skies and fruits and flowers—Majestic hills and leafy bowers—Make life worth while.

FLAMING SYMBOL OF KLAN BLAZES

Burning Cross on Hillside
Alarms Residents of Northern Section

A burning cross—symbol of the Ku Klux Klan—presumed by local fire and police officials to have been erected by members of that order, caused some excitement in the north end of the city shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

The cross was reported burning on the hillside north of the intersection of Louise and Mountain streets. Captain R. E. Dodsworth of the fire department was sent to the scene, although the cross was outside of the city limits.

He found, according to his statement this morning, a cross approximately twenty feet high, made out of iron pipe, wrapped with kumput, on which had been poured some kind of oil. This had been lighted. The fire was extinguished before it had a chance to spread.

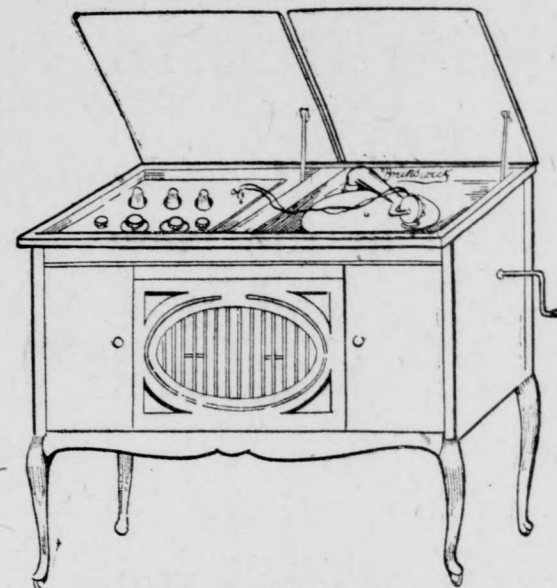

Three men, sitting near the cross when the officers approached, disclaimed any knowledge of the burning cross, but were stating that they saw several men running in the brush when they had left the road below to approach the fire.

Hold Final Community Sing at High School

The final community "sing" of the season was held last night at Harvard High school, where a large crowd of Glendale song lovers were assembled. J. Arthur Myers, director, assisted by Miss Fern Heacock, pianist, led in some of the old favorites. Later Milford C. Jackson gave a group of bass solos.

The surprise feature of the evening was the appearance of the "Harmony Trio," including J. Arthur Myers, Milford C. Jackson and V. M. Hollister.

ARRESTS NEAR IN AQUEDUCT BLAST

Owens Valley Residents Face Charges In Probe of Dynamite Outrage

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Arrests in the Los Angeles Aqueduct dynamiting will be made this afternoon or tomorrow at the latest, according to a formal statement issued today by officials of the city power bureau. According to city officials nearly all of the links in the chain of evidence have been forged and between thirty and forty residents of Owens valley, near the scene of the dynamiting, will be arrested.

The arrested persons will be taken to Independence, county seat of Inyo county, for arraignment, it was said.

Ranchers, said to be implicated in the bombing plot, became desperate, it was charged, contending that diversion of the water of Owens river for Los Angeles use had made farming in the valley impossible.

EX-SOLDIERS TO HOLD SALT LAKE MEET JUNE 23RD

Serious Business to Occupy
Veterans' Attention at Fourth Convention

SALT LAKE CITY, May 23.—The "reunion spirit," prevalent at most conventions of veterans, will be notably absent from the fourth annual convention of Disabled American Veterans, which opens here June 23, officials of the organization indicate.

Instead of a celebration, the convention itself will be a grim, business-like session, as in the case of the Detroit, San Francisco and Minneapolis meetings, in which the men almost immediately will settle down to solve the serious problems confronting them and the men in the hospitals and vocational training schools, whom they represent.

This does not mean, say the officials, that the cities which have played host to them have not provided profuse entertainment, nor that the forthcoming convention here is to be a drab affair. Elaborate preparations have been made by local citizens and organizations to entertain the visiting veterans, and a considerable sum of money has been collected for this purpose by committees preparing for their reception.

Meet in Tabernacle

The opening session this time will be held in the great Mormon tabernacle, with its enormous organ, elaborate radio equipment and room for 7,000 persons. There will be speeches of welcome by the governor, the mayor and other distinguished Utah citizens, and responses by National Commander James A. McFarland, of Dalton, Ga.; Past Commander Robert S. Marx, of Cincinnati, and Past Commander C. Hamilton Cook, of Buffalo. Veterans' organizations will have ranking officers present to extend greetings to the Disabled American Veterans, but if history repeats itself, the high spot for the disabled ex-soldier will be the appearance of Mme. Schumann-Heink.

The Disabled American Veterans' convention is a fixture on the annual calendar of this great city. Each year she bears her own expenses to sing for the disabled and this year she has again accepted an invitation to sing on the opening day. Her songs will not be lost to the men too badly scarred to make the trip, for her voice will be carried by radio to the beds of the men in the hospitals in various parts of the country.

Affording himself the opportunity of personally meeting the greatest body of disabled men that gathers annually, Brigadier-General Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau, two months ago accepted an invitation to attend. Salt Lake remembers Frank Hines, national guardsman, of a score of years ago. After leaving Utah he steadily rose until during the world war he was in charge of the tremendous task of getting overseas and back home the 2,000,000 men who made by trip. He was decorated by numerous governments for his achievement and now heads the government agency that annually dispenses more money than any other department.

Men Await Message

While Salt Lake City is anxious to welcome General Hines, there is, particularly interest in what he will have to say, as he is expected to bring a message that will be of vital interest to the tens of thousands of men who are still carrying the scars of their service.

The convention will last through the whole of the last week in June. During the last year the organization has made marked strides in extension of veteran aid and has become a power in national councils at Washington. Particular interest will attach to the reports of the different chairmen upon the accomplishments in legislation and rehabilitation in the last twelve months.

One of the most impressive features of the Disabled American Veterans' gathering is the ceremonial in remembrance of the dead. As soon as the invocation is pronounced upon the opening day of each convention the whole assemblage turn their thoughts to those who have passed on, and, standing at attention, the hats, and the lame and the blind, the survivors of the great American armies of 1918—remain in silence for one minute.

Then will come the all-important task of adopting the legislative program for the next year. The convention annually prepares what is considered a bill of rights, which is the guide for officers during their term of service. The Disabled American Veterans have influenced legislation this year and next month will outline their aims for the next year.

Movie Patron Locked In; Seeks Large Sum

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—For an hour's sleep, $3,000. That sum was asked by Samuel Petrie in a suit filed in Common Pleas court here against the proprietor of a motion picture theatre. Petrie alleged he was "imprisoned and deprived of liberty" during the hour he continued to sleep after the last employee to leave the theatre had barred the doors.

The defense contended it was not responsible for Petrie falling asleep, and that the theatre employees did not notice the sleeper.

ENGLISH FATHER PRAISES POLICE

Similarity of Names Shows
Membership in Same
Old World Clan

found Miss Haritt alive and well at the Linden avenue address, and she had written her father, her letter crossing the path of his letter to Chief Fraser. A combination of circumstances out of her control had prevented her writing regularly.

The father's anxiety was dispelled, but his letter to Chief Fraser, thanking him for his assistance, is a remarkable document. It reads, in part, as follows:

Father's Thanks
It is a very pleasing thought that although California is separated from England by thousands of miles of land and water, and that our two nations are technically foreigners one to another, yet men of our own blood and our own traditions rule the destinies of the great country of America.

"I can assure you the people of England have the friendliest feeling towards Americans, and are as proud of your great achievements as if they were our own."

"May I also state that I was also struck by the thoroughly familiar look of your letter, its style, its wording, its tone—all were so refreshingly familiar, the names especially so."

Joint Meet of School Board Takes Place

pal George U. Moysse were also in attendance.

Plan Development
Problems that confront both boards were discussed in a general way, especially those features of school administration where the two boards overlap. Plans for future development occupied the attention of the board members of the two boards.

The question of the use of part of the room in the Harvard street school by classes of the intermediate grades was also brought up, but no final action was taken.

Under One Head
It was the general opinion of all present, according to Mr. White and Mr. Moysse, that eventually school affairs in Glendale would be carried on under one head, but as this would take some time to work out, the two boards ought to co-operate until a change in the present plan was made.

As soon as the committee appointed last night is ready to report, another joint meeting of the two boards will be called.

Howland ignored Means and walked to another room. Means followed closely at his heels.

"Will you come outside and say that same thing?" Means demanded.

Howland turned abruptly. "I have no quarrel with you," he said.

"I was only replying to Senator Wheeler."

Means flushed red with anger to his collar. Clenching his fists and poking his face in Howland's, Means shouted:

"Come outside and I'll show you whether you can make remarks like that about me."

Howland did not move, and as Means moved back as if to strike, a police guard rushed into the chamber and separated them.

Means, accompanied by two friends, walked out.

"And I wish they'd let me get at this fellow Todd, who was on the stand," Means called back. "I'd beat him like I did Macduffy. God gave me the power to do it."

and, in fact, the entire San Fernando and Antelope valleys, comprising the district.

Born in Iowa, he has lived in southern California for the past fourteen years, graduating from the college of law, University of Southern California. In his marriage to Miss Dorothy Lee some five years ago, Glendale gained a distinguished resident who had served in the World war as a lieutenant.

Being controlled by no special interests, Assemblyman Weller, as a candidate for re-election, stands in the same position to serve the district fairly and squarely as he did two years ago, when he made his first bid for public confidence.

Straight to Voters
"I am seeking the endorsement of no particular organization," he said this morning in an interview with a representative of The Glendale Evening News, "but present my candidacy straight to the voters. I have worked steadily for Glendale, the San Fernando valley and other points in the district, during my term in office, and will continue to exert my every effort in the same direction if re-elected."

In passing his petitions for nomination two years ago, Assemblyman Weller found the Republican leaders of the Sixty-First district his staunch supporters, and, in addition, made friends of practically every party and creed. It is this ability to win confidence that sent him to the legislature, where he demonstrated that he possesses the true qualities of leadership.

As a consequence of his brilliant public record, and because of his sterling private character, his old backers have rallied to the support of Assemblyman Frank C. Weller, and a list of those endorsing

BEAUTY OF ISLE RUINED BY TRADE

Splendors of Catalina In Bygone Days Recalled
by Witty Yarn

The couplet above quoted shows the journalist's effort in that line. Conditions Have Changed

If the visitor of 1908 found conditions changed on the island how would a visit to Catalina of today impress him? The Catalina of those days, with rare picnics, not an auto on the island, one boat a day; communication with the mainland uncertain; bears little resemblance to the popular resort of today.

The announcement was made in The Glendale Evening News of Tuesday that the Boys' camp under the direction of the Glendale Y. M. C. C. which a hundred or over boys, accompanied by a number of men who will act as directors in the religious and physical activities of the camp, will attend, will be held on Catalina island in July. This camp is but a small part of the thousands who will visit the island this summer. Every day it is said boats carrying hundreds of visitors make the trip a number of times daily.

The little fishing village of those days, the boats with the sail-ropes which greeted the eye of the visitor as he approached the island at sunset; the brown hills and peaks in the distance in which the wild goats still clambered are all within the memory of "Old Timer." But all is changed. Automobiles, radio, excursion boats, and tourist hotels have metamorphosed the place and the commercialism so deplored by the journalist has done its worst and Catalina, with all its picture-queeness of mountain and sea is no longer the "Enchanted Isle."

POETIC TRIBUTE IS PAID TO CITY

Mrs. J. F. Moser Pens Lines of Appreciation and Pretty Compliments

"Glendale's the place!" is the declaration of Mrs. J. F. Moser of 111 North Belmont street, who has penned her thoughts of Glendale in a poem, written under the title "Glendale's The Place!"

The Glendale Evening News is pleased to print Mrs. Moser's poetic compliment to her home city. The poem follows:

"Glendale cannot boast of buildings great and tall;
Or of ancient moat, or man-made lofty wall;
She's not troubled with the elevated trains;
And she has no winter snows, or summer rains;
But she sits in quiet beauty, like a queen,
With a coronet of mountains, brown and green.

"Drinking dens, our little city never sees;
But the finest lemonade grows on her trees;
While her palm-leaf fans are waving o'er the street,
To protect our heads from the summer's glare and heat;
Senses thrill with pleasure, at the fragrance rare,
Which the orange blossoms scatter everywhere.

"When we go away, awhile, we feel the lure
Of our Glendale's sunny skies, and war pure,
And our heart within us sadly yearns and pines
For her fragrant flowers, and moss, and clinging vines;
Oh, to see her pepper trees! and flashing wings
Of the dear old mocking bird that sings and sings!

"When an old, old friend we'd really like to greet,
It is here in Glendale that we're sure to meet;
For it's here, the rich come out to spend their wealth;
And it's here, the sick ones come to gain their health;
And it's here, the business men come to invest;
And it's here, the aged come for it is pleasant, in other fair lands, to roam;
But Glendale's the place—when we want to go HOME!"

MEIGHAN SCORES SCREEN TRIUMPH IN NEW PICTURE

"The Confidence Man" Offers Star Splendid Field, Shows at Gateway

"The Confidence Man," now showing at the Gateway Theatre, has been hailed as Thomas Meighan's greatest picture since "The Miracle Man," in which he scored his first big hit. It is an adaptation of the serial novel by Robert H. Davis and L. Y. Erskine, that ran through the Argosy-All-Story magazine, beginning March 14, and tells the gripping story of a slick crook whose cold heart was warmed by a woman's love, Victor Heerman directed. It is a Paramount production.

Virginia Valli is Meighan's leading woman. Charming as ever, she adds the ideal feminine touch to this strong melodrama. Meighan plays Dan Corvan, fake oil stock salesman; Laurence Wheat is Larry Maddox, his lieutenant. Charles Dow Clark has the role of Godfrey Queritt, wealthy and miserly old man whom Corvan is trying to get to buy some worthless International Oil.

Helen Lindroth, Jimmie Lapsley, Margaret Seddon and many others are in the strong supporting cast.

There's romance and a regeneration theme in this story—comedy, pathos and wholesomeness. And the dramatic suspense worked up in the final climax is terrible.

Titles by George Ade Another feature of "The Confidence Man" is that the titles are by George Ade, popular humorist, who wrote many of Meighan's best pictures, including "Our Leading Citizen" and "Back Home and Broke."

One of the many realistic scenes in "The Confidence Man" is when $20,000 of real money is scattered out of a handbag in which the star, in the role of Dan Corvan, is transporting the fortune he has taken from Godfrey Queritt, the old miser, in exchange for worthless oil stock. The Paramount property department vouches that this money was genuine, obtained especially from the bank for the making of that particular sequence.

The Gateway Theatre is a Glendale institution, located in the heart of the city and known afar by its searchlight beam that sweeps the heavens each night. Recently completed, it represents the very latest in modern theatre construction, according to its manager, is especially attractive, finished in Egyptian jazz plaster. The seating capacity is large and every seat roomy and comfortable. Numerous exits are provided. In fact, declares Mr. Loper, people come not only from Glendale but from Hollywood, Los Angeles, Pasadena and all the upper valley points to visit the Gateway Theatre.

Music Is Feature A special feature is Stanley Bentley at the big organ of this showhouse. Music has come to be regarded equally important as the picture and to harmonize his entire program into a unified evening's entertainment. Manager Loper has secured the services of one of the best organists in Southern California.

"The Confidence Man" will continue at the Gateway Theatre today and tomorrow, with appropriate comedy reels and short features.

MEET HERE AFTER LONG SEPARATION

Sisters Had Not Seen Each Other for 29 Years; Are Reunited Once More

Mrs. Johanna Edwards of 369 West California avenue is very happy over the arrival from New York of her sister, Mrs. Regina Karstadt, mother of Rudolph Karstadt, who came to Glendale some months ago to make his home with his aunt.

The two sisters had not seen each other for twenty-nine years and they are having a delightful visit taking over old times.

Mrs. Karstadt came to California via the Panama Canal, making the trip on the Kroonland. She reports that they enjoyed ideal weather during the entire trip.

Stop at Havana En route, they stopped in Havana, where the passengers were privileged to take an excursion about the city. They enjoyed visiting two old churches over 200 years old and the old cemetery.

The Kroonland arrived at San Pedro Sunday morning and Mrs. Edwards and her nephew were waiting on the dock to greet Mrs. Karstadt.

Mrs. Karstadt plans to spend the summer in Glendale. This is her first visit to California and she states that she thinks the country beautiful.

FATHER OF FOUR KILLED IN OHIO WOMAN'S ATTACK

Girl Throws Acid in Face of Her Lover; Fumes Prove Fatal

By ROBERT T. SMALL, Special Correspondent of The Glendale Evening News, Copyright, 1924. COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 23.—Was it the age old fury of woman scorned, or was it the mad love of a woman who sought to blind and disfigure a man so that she might make this man dependent upon her alone, so that she might devote all of her life to him and hold tender, the living human thing she had made a horror to all other beholders?

This is the problem which confronts the police authorities of the Ohio capital as they probe deeper into the motives of the woman who hurled a bottle of burning acid into the face of the man she claims she has loved for years and could not live without. The attack with the acid was made in a crowded moving picture theatre. Two boys sitting close to the man were badly burned by the spattering liquid fire.

Confesses Crime Frankly, tearfully, the woman has confessed her crime. She said the love of her sweetheart was growing cold. She had heard from his own lips, that he was beginning to be interested in other women. Therefore, she who had thought him handsome, wanted now to disfigure him. She wanted to make him so horrible that no other woman would look at him, or could look at him without a shudder. Then she said she felt she could have him all for herself and care for him and be happy, oh, so happy.

That was her dream. She would dress the semblance of the face that would be left. It would still be all that was handsome to her. The sightless eyes, the livid scars. She had not thought how terrible he might look, nor did she care. He would be hers. She would lead him out into the sunlight which he might never see again. And she would be happy. And she would make him so. Her love was so intense it could not be otherwise. In her mind there was never the slightest doubt that he would understand in the end and forgive and she would nurse him back to all the health he might ever know.

Death, Not Injury But now the dream is ended. The acid was hurled too well. The man's mouth was open in stark astonishment. The acid went in. It was inhaled. The man collapsed and died of congestion of the lungs. He was literally drowned in the morning fumes.

The woman, packing her cell in jail and facing a charge of murder, refuses to believe the stories that are told her of the agonies of death which overcame the man she loved. It was not intended to be so. She had no thought of killing him. That was the last thing which men have entered her disordered brain. So, therefore, to her he cannot be dead. That was no part of the program. When the truth finally is borne in upon her, the authorities expect the woman to collapse.

Children Will Suffer She is a poor bobbed hair creature with no love in her heart for the husband who is the father of her four children. It was another woman's husband who attracted her. Then the other woman died. She, too, had had four children. So today there are four little orphans in Columbus and four more little tots whose mother may be forced to spend the remainder of her ill-directed life behind the bars.

The authorities have been at a loss as to the exact charges to make against the woman. They believe her story that there was no premeditation or even intention of killing the man and so they have resolved that it is not a case for the hangman. In Ohio, assault with intent to maim is a crime which carries a maximum of life imprisonment.

Will Charge Murder It is a chapter of the statutes specifically aimed at acid-throwers. At first it was thought this might be the charge against the woman, but, inasmuch as it does not account for the death of the victim, the present intention is to charge murder in the second degree.

The name of the woman is immaterial. She is just another daughter of Eve. It was only strange that a love so intense could have grown in the commonplace surroundings that were hers. She had not read novels. She often went to the movies, but they did not appeal to her rather dull imagination and she says they did not give her the idea of the acid. She had heard two women talking once of how one of their sex "held her man by burning him." Then the impulse came to her when she realized "her man" had no intention of marrying her if she could get a divorce.

It was the most primitive of love in the world that made Mrs. Grace Dolby, brown-haired and 35, hurl the acid at George B. Hackney, who was four years her junior. It was all the love she knew. The acid cost ten cents.

Two witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Duckstein, previously had testified that J. P. O'Brien and Walter Pettit, "special investigators for Todd," had spirited away Means' documents which were reported missing on March 31.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE STICKERS

"Where are you going, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one day, as she saw the rabbit gentleman hopping down the front walk from the hollow stump bungalow.

"Oh, I am just going to see how those two robin birds are coming along with their nest house," answered the rabbit. "It must be nearly finished by this time, for I have gnawed many twigs for them."

"Well, don't bother Mrs. Robin if she is laying her eggs," said the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"I'll be careful," promised Mr. Longears.

"And don't forget to bring what I asked you to from the store," went on Nurse Jane.

"Did you tell me to bring something from the store?" inquired Uncle Wiggily, stopping short and twinkling his pink nose, as if that would help him think.

"Of course I did!" laughed Nurse Jane. "I told you to bring me a can of molasses, as I want to make some cookies."

"Oh, so you did!" I'll surely bring that, as I like molasses cookies very much," laughed the bunny.

Then he hopped down the lane a little way to where the two robins were building their nest house in a tree.

"It is almost finished, thank you," sang Mr. Robin, for, as I have told you, Uncle Wiggily had helped in the making of the birds' nest.

"And soon I am going to lay my eggs," chirped Mrs. Robin.

"Good!" cried the bunny. "I shall be glad to see your little birds. Now I am going to the store after molasses."

Uncle Wiggily went happily to the three and four cent store, where molasses was sold, and there he bought a large can, so Nurse Jane might make many cookies.

It was while he was on his way home that Uncle Wiggily heard, in the thick bushes, some queer noises. There were whines, snarls, barks and whimpers.

"Goodness me!" thought the rabbit gentleman. "I hope this isn't a nest of Bob Cats! It sounds just like a lot of savage little Bob Cat kittens who might scratch me. I must be careful."

Uncle Wiggily was going to hop backward and get away when all of a sudden he heard a voice saying:

"We'll never get them off, Jackie."

"I'm afraid not, Peetie," spoke another voice. "My, but you're covered with stickers!"

My, but you're covered with stickers!

took a long while, so some sparrow birds flew down to help. And what with Jackie and Peetie picking stickers from one another, and Uncle Wiggily and the robins and sparrows helping, the doggie boys, after a while, were picked clean.

"Don't ever go in the sticky stickers again," warned Uncle Wiggily.

"No, we never will!" promised Jackie and Peetie.

And just as Uncle Wiggily was going to walk home with them, after having thanked the birds, out of the bushes jumped the Wootie Wolf.

"Ah, ha! Now I'm going to catch you!" cried the Wolf to the rabbit.

"No, you aren't!" cried Mr. Longears. Quickly he opened the can of sticky molasses and spread some on the log. Then, before the Wolf could bite, the rabbit and the puppy dog boys pushed the Wolf down so that he fell backward and sat on the log. And he sat in the sticky molasses and he pulled, but the molasses held him fast. And while he was stuck there Mr. Longears and Jackie and Peetie ran safely home.

And if the cake of soap doesn't try to wash the face of the clock when the hands are trying to pick apples off the hat tree, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's birch pop.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Darby believe they have been married longer than any other couple in the United States.

They have been married 70 years.

When they walked to the altar together in 1854 Franklin Pierce was president. The Mexican war hadn't been over very long. No one expected such an outburst as the civil war. Eggs were 5 cents a dozen. Candies were still used for lighting. Very few people believed the land west of the Mississippi would ever be much used to the United States. Kings ruled by divine right.

Mr. Darby is 97 years old and his wife is 90. For 70 years they have never been separated and Mrs. Darby proudly tells that Mr. Darby has never failed to kiss her goodnight—not in more than 25,000 nights.

They would like to hear from any couple who have been married longer.

JAPAN BRINGS EXCLUSION CRISIS ON HERSELF, SAYS SOCIAL SCIENTIST.

"The following simple facts afford great help in correctly judging the Japanese aspects of pending immigration legislation," stated Henry Pratt Fairchild, professor of social economy at New York University, in a recent open letter to the press.

"For several years past Congress, with a painstaking diligence that few of us realize, has been working on a permanent restrictive immigration law. Such a law is now approaching its probable final form. In this law may appropriately be included any general principle which the United States may wish to have definitely established, even though its immediate application may not be of large importance.

"As on such principle, Congress has included in the present bill a clause excluding as aliens immigrants to citizenship, with exceptions in favor of ministers, teachers, students, etc. This is a general provision. Specific races have already been excluded by various measures—the Chinese by special acts, the people of large sections of Asia and the adjacent islands by the 'geographical elimination' clause, and Japanese laborers by the gentleman's agreement.

"Since 1875 citizenship by naturalization has been limited to persons, and to aliens of African descent. This inclusion of Africans is obviously a provision necessitated by early mistakes in introducing non-white blood into the country. It cannot be interpreted as a departure from the general principle of a white citizenship. This principle, so far as the writer knows, has never been seriously challenged in this country or abroad.

"The clause in the immigration bill, accordingly, aims to bring our immigration law into consistent conformity with a long established naturalization law. Japan, had she wished, could have saved her face by saving with perfect logic: 'This is a general provision. It does not affect our concern as we have already voluntarily stopped all general immigration from our country to the United States.' Instead of this, she chose to announce to the world that this cause, if passed, would be a direct affront to her.

"Japan has thus created a situation the true significance of which may be perceived by asking and answering three questions: Is it a sound political principle in a democracy to refuse immigration to aliens who can never become citizens? If so, should we refrain from embodying this principle in a permanent immigration law because one foreign nation objects? In the light of Japan's announcement, could any way be found of embodying it without offending her?

"Japan has brought this situation upon herself. She has forced us into the awkward position of having to choose between two unfortunate lines of conduct. One is to yield the position that it is both our right and our fair prerogative to legislate as we please about immigration, and to concede the claim of any nation in the future to demand negotiation on penalty of loss of friendship. The other is to take a reasonable action which Japan announces she will interpret as an affront to herself. Which shall it be?"

Daily News Letter

General News and Gossip from Staff Writers at Home and Abroad

By DAVID M. CHURCH, For International News Service.

LONDON, May 23.—"U. S. Army Coming." This headline is displayed prominently and repeatedly in the English press.

It is not an echo of the World War or the promise of a new war, but merely the American army of tourists to which the newspapers refer.

Back in 1917 the English press was hopeful of the arrival of the American Army, but hardly more hopeful than it is today of the arrival of the American army of tourists.

The British Empire is staging a big show this year in London, in the British Empire Exhibition. It's touted as the biggest exposition the world has ever seen. While it is theoretically by and for the subjects of King George, one gathers from the daily press that it won't be a success unless the Americans come to support it financially.

Wildest hopes have been expressed, and the number of Americans who will visit London this Summer has been estimated at figures varying from a quarter of a million to a million, although it is nearly a physical impossibility to transport more than 200,000 across the Atlantic during the Summer months unless the navies of the world are drafted as a transport service.

American proclivities for spending are highly respected in England and everyone feels certain that if the Americans only come to visit the exhibition they will spend enough to pay for the show. It remains to be seen whether their hopes are fulfilled.

The British Empire Exhibition got away to a flying start but struck rough going soon after it left the post. As usual, old "Jupiter Pluvius" intervened and the bad weather which prevailed during the early days kept crowds away. It takes a courageous man to stage an out-of-doors show in England, where the sun is truly a heaven-sent gift, bestowed at long intervals. The optimistic are nevertheless hopeful that the sun will shine in all of its English glory once the American tourists arrive.

The Exhibition has not been without its own little troubles, and has been attacked on several sides. First, there was the criticism that sufficient publicity had not been given the show in the United States. Then the exhibition opened and there followed another uproar. Hadden Swaffer, an editor with a penchant for discovery, unearthed the "big scandal." The throne upon which King George and Queen Mary sat the opening day was built of American timber. Not even Canadian timber, but timber from the United States! This came pretty close to low majesty, if one can believe Swaffer. Here was a great British Empire show with the rulers of the Empire present, and their Majesties were given thrones made out of pine from the Pacific Coast of the United States. "Was shocking," Swaffer averred, and some people agreed with him.

Swaffer also found the enterprise of manufacturers of the United States a little disappointing. Here was a British Empire exhibition but somehow or other a great many exhibits which were undeniably American were on display, and prominently displayed. Swaffer didn't like this at all, and neither did his sympathizers.

Swaffer's caustic criticism didn't seem to budge the exhibition people and they have made but one concession to him thus far. The large signs advertising a favorite beer has been removed at his behest from a site commanding one of the most beautiful vistas in the grounds.

The exhibition will continue to draw if the authorities can get "Jupiter Pluvius" on their side, notwithstanding Swaffer—and if the "U. S. Army" comes.

THE GATEWAY

"The Confidence Man," featuring Thomas Meighan, continues at the Gateway Theatre, where it is proving almost as popular as his famous "Miracle Man." Paul Sloane adapted and Victor Heerman directed. It is a Paramount picture.

The story, which ran as a serial in Argosy All-Story Weekly, brings the "good luck" star to the screen in the role of a clever confidence man type of crook. He goes to a small town to rope in a miserly old fellow on a fake oil stock deal, gets in right with the people of the village, gets his victim's money and prepares to skip when the "man higher up" arrives from New York.

Virginia Valli, star of "A Lady of Quality," is leading woman. Cyril Ring and Lawrence Wreghitt are prominent in the supporting cast, which is typical of all Meighan productions and includes, among others, Charles Dow Clark, Jimmie Lapsley, Dorothy Walters and David Higgins.

SENNETT GOES FISHING

Mack Sennett has taken his fishing boat and cruised down the Pacific coast to Turtle Bay and the Sedres Islands, off the coast of Mexico. The spot is the spawning place of the whale, and the picture producer expects some excitement and sport. Swordfish and tuna abound in these waters as well, and Mr. Sennett has taken a motion picture camera with him to record the thrills and beauties of deep-sea fishing. It is probable he will use the film in a comedy later.

HOLIE STARTS NEW ONE

Jack Hoxie, Universal star of western features, has started on "Daring Chances" under direction of Cliff Smith, the other main factor of the Hoxie-Smith unit. The supporting cast includes Alta Allen, Catherine Wallace, little Doreen Turner, Genevieve Knapf, William McCall, Claude Payton, Jack Pratt and Newton Campbell. The script calls for much spectacular riding, and has a strong love interest.

THE GLENDALE

Viola Dana in "The Social Code" continues at the Glendale Theatre, with a supporting cast that includes Malcolm McGregor, Huntly Gordon and Cyril Chadwick. The picture was made by Metro from the Rita Weiman story, "To Whom It May Concern." Oscar Apfel directed.

Five acts of Bert Levey vaudeville are also on the boards today and tomorrow.

Starting Sunday, Buster Keaton in "Sherlock, Jr." comes, a Joseph M. Schenck production for Metro. It tells of a young man's desire to be a detective.

THE T. D. & L.

"Foots Highway," with Mary Philbin, star of "Merry-Go-Round," is at the T. D. & L. Theatre, a Universal-Jewel picture, based on Owen Kildare's life story, "My Mamie Rose." Irving Cummings directed. The comedy today is "Fool Proof." There is an International News reel.

ELINOR GLYN, LTD.

Elinor Glyn, Ltd. That's the new title of the famous author of "Three Weeks," "Six Days" and others. Mrs. Glyn has incorporated in London to free herself from business details. An active office to transact the business of Glyn, Ltd., is maintained at 19 Berkeley street, London.

FILM "MRS. PARAMOR"

Robert G. Vignola has started preparations for the filming of "Mrs. Paramor," Louis Joseph Vance's story, which will be Vignola's first special production for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

ANSWERS TO MOTHERS

Mrs. S.—You say your baby of 15 months cannot drink sweet milk; that she vomits it all up in about five minutes. You have not weaned her because she cannot drink milk. You want to know if there is something you can put in the milk to make it more digestible.

In the first place, Mrs. S., you should not be nursing your baby now. In most cases, babies should be weaned at the ninth or tenth month, and should be having a lot of good solid food by the fifteenth month, which should have been begun very gradually by the sixth month.

If you boil the milk, that will make it more digestible, and combining cereal gruels also makes it more digestible. A baby of 15 months of age should be having three meals a day, with one lunch, at 3:30 p. m. or 4 p. m., of milk. Its daily diet should include a quart of milk, including the lunch milk; cereals; dried crisp bread and butter; egg yolks two or three times a week, or oftener; orange juice; meat or vegetable broths; scraped beef or cottage cheese or nut butter; strained or pureed vegetables; stewed and fresh fruit.

The articles on Infant and Child Feeding which I ran a short time ago are now in book form. We have a list of other books on the subject of infant and child feeding, which you may have by sending a s. a. s. e. with your request for it.

"Dear Doctor:—I have a boy of twelve and a half, my first baby; he is very pale and thin, nervous, mentally backward, wets the bed every night and bites his finger nails off completely. I have been to a specialist and he tells me there is no organic trouble. He is simply undernourished and must eat more.—Mrs. H. H."

If your specialist did not tell you very specifically what to do for your son, go to another. You must see that the boy has a lying down period if possible for an hour every day; have him go to bed early and sleep 10 or 12 hours; keep him from playing very hard; and it may be possible that you will have to take him out of school until his condition is remedied. You cannot expect him to study and learn in his present condition. It is quite natural that he would be backward mentally.

We have recently had articles on the Malnourished Child. These, with all of the other articles that I have written on diet for children, are compiled in a book. There are other good books on child feeding. We will give you the list if you will send a s. a. s. e. requesting it. Meanwhile, carry out these instructions:

See that your son has a quart of milk a day in some form—custards, egg noggs, junket, etc.; at least one full cup of vegetables, part of them raw; one full cup of fruit, part fresh, if possible; plenty of whole wheat bread and butter; oatmeal, and other whole grain cereals; one or two egg yolks a day. Do not allow him to have any candy or desserts until he has eaten these growth foods. Allow nothing between meals except a glass of milk, and do not allow this if it interferes with his appetite at the meals. Give oranges or other fruit instead in such case.

Mrs. G.—Chafing may be due to many causes—diapers that are washed with strong soap and not thoroughly rinsed, irritating discharges, or the normal discharges when the diapers are not changed often enough. Usually a softening ointment or oil is best for chafing. Sweet oil, olive oil, aboline, lanoline, etc., are all good.

Tomorrow—Answers To Correspondents

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose stamps in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember it is impossible for me to diagnose for you to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the next issue as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

This is the season when many a June bride is planning her home furnishings. Therefore it is an appropriate time of year to talk about the care of linoleum floor covering. The house-keeper-beginner will lengthen the life of her linoleum if she will take these precautions before actually beginning to use her new home:

After the linoleum has been laid, and before it has a chance to become soiled, wax it thoroughly with the following (I assume that it is either plain or inlaid linoleum):

Home-Prepared Wax for Linoleum: Melt one-fourth pound of beeswax over boiling water and, when melted, remove from fire and stir into it one pint of turpentine. Mix till as thick as butter, then put it in a jar and use as needed.

Apply this wax to the linoleum with a piece of outing flannel, then rub it into the surface thoroughly with a weighted brush or a heavy brick wrapped in a soft cloth; as linoleum is a cork composition, and quite porous, it will absorb a surprising quantity of wax. Never over wax it, however. Simply continue to apply the wax till it has sunk into the pores and filled all the interstices between the particles of cork, thereby making the surface of the linoleum a solid, durable mass. Dust will not cling to a waxed surface of this sort. When your floor covering is treated in this way all that it will need in the way of cleaning is an occasional dusting with a dry mop. Of course in spots where traffic is heavy—such as near doorways, kitchen range, etcetera, you will have to re-wax the floor oftener than in places less constantly used. Printed linoleum, as the name implies, has a pattern printed on the surface. This pattern must be protected by either shellac or varnish. Many housewives regularly varnish their printed linoleums once every six months, often giving it two coats with a 14-hour wait between to let the varnish dry thoroughly. Select a good grade of varnish which will not turn white when water is spilled on it. After either varnishing or shellacking your linoleum wipe it every two weeks with the following cleaning mixture:

Home-Made Cleaning Fluid for Linoleum: Mix together one quart of boiling water, three tablespoons of linseed oil and one tablespoon of turpentine. Use it as you would use water in washing a piece of cloth—that is, sparingly and drying immediately. (Tomorrow—"Just How" To Make Good Outlets)

THE AFTER HOUSE

ded, and Mac, getting a hand free, struck a match.

That, after all, is the story. Jones was a madman, a homicidal maniac of the worst type. Always a madman, the homicidal element of his disease was recurrent and of a curious nature. He thought himself a priest of heaven, appointed to make ghastly sacrifices at certain signals from on high. The signals I am not sure of; he turned taciturn after his capture and would not talk. I am inclined to think that a shooting star, perhaps in a particular quarter of the heavens, was his signal. This is distinctly possible, and is made probable by the stars which he had painted with tar on his sacrificial robe.

What was the story of that fated morning of August 12? Read the last instalment tomorrow to find out—"Explanations."

HATS GROWING WIDER

NEW YORK, May 23.—Hats are growing wider today. One sort shown here today, very summer-like in appearance, is a thin striped black straw with wide, drooping brim and high crown. Across the front is a group of red and rust roses, pressed, flattened and covered with a veiling of silk gauze.

Dainty Dress Accessories

Bewildering variety of pretty things that add a distinctive touch to Milady's wardrobe are described by experts in the realm of fashion and three of them are shown in the picture.

By MME. LISBETH

"The world is so full of a number of things I am sure we should all be as happy as kings," sang Robert Louis Stevenson, and so we should be, no doubt, if the "things" were all pleasant, but unfortunately they are not, and sometimes we are quite convinced that the disagreeable things outnumber the pleasant.

However, in the realm of fashion there are so many agreeable things, big and little, that the only reason we can have for not being perfectly happy as we survey them is the lamentable fact that we cannot have as many of them as we would like.

The particular "things" with which we have illustrated this story are all attractive and just a little different from the ordinary. For the woman who does not care for the masculine looking waistcoat and stock to wear with her suit there is the lace vest and jabot like the one on the left. Alencon lace in a floral pattern is used for the foundation with a fluffly ruffle of soft lace down the side in jabot effect. A tiny tricolor bow is worn at the meeting point of the collar.

In the center of the illustration is a pretty slip-over tan silk sweater. Nothing very new about it, but the clever monogram embroidered in black near the bottom of the left side gives it a distinctive and nobby touch.

Perhaps you prefer not to join the army of gay silk scarf wearers and cling to fur as being richer looking and more individual while the world in general flaunts the scarf. The handsome moleskin on the right would give distinction to any suit or coat frock. It is trimmed with colored wool embroidery and has a pocket for a dainty mouchoir in one end.

Rank of domestic service in 41 years there will be virtually no domestic employees at all, according to statistics gathered by the Pennsylvania Consumers' League. Since 1910 more than 41,000 women have left domestic service and the same is true of women in agriculture, chicken farming, the artistic professions, sculpture and music. Women authors, insurance agents and clerical women have increased 50 per cent, however, while women lawyers have tripled in number.

Women are branching out into other fields and are becoming stone masons, brick layers, pawnbrokers, stevedores, cobblers, shoemakers, coal operators and theatrical managers and owners.

Mrs. Mae E. Nolan, Republican Congresswoman from California, is the first woman to be elected chairman of a congressional committee, serving as head of the committee on postoffice expenditures. Mrs. Nolan's nomination was confirmed by a unanimous vote.

Who's Who

MRS. FLORENCE COLLINS PORTER

The first woman to vote in a national Republican convention will be one of the important feminine figures in the coming conclave in Cleveland, O., in June.

She is Mrs. Florence Collins Porter, of Los Angeles, Cal.

She was named delegate to the Chicago convention in 1912. She also served as one of the 13 presidential electors on the Roosevelt-Johnson ticket that same year.

She has been active in women's organizations and movements since the death of her husband, Rev. Charles Porter, in 1893, finding time to devote to these activities while raising her three children.

She served on the editorial staff of the Los Angeles Herald for five years, has written extensively for periodicals, and has served on the editorial staffs of the California Outlook and Women's Citizen of San Francisco. She has been very active in the work of the McKinley Boys' Home, in Los Angeles.

She is still president of the Los Angeles Equal Suffrage Association and was formerly vice-president of the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

She is now serving as a member of the executive committee, women's division, of the Republican committee.

FOOT TREATMENTS

Hardly anyone realizes the importance of healthy circulation of the blood through the feet. Corns can be avoided entirely, at least the tendency to develop them greatly diminished, if the feet have healthy circulation, and a lot of other troubles can be avoided. Some times sleeplessness is due to the discomfort of cold, damp feet. And massage is a marvellous remedy for bad circulation.

Expert (and expensive) chiropodists have special ways of massaging the feet. But I think you'll find satisfactory results if you simply rub and knead the feet and ankles with your hands, without worrying whether you follow certain glands or sets of muscles and nerves in scientific fashion.

I'd suggest that the feet be scrubbed with a stiff, little brush during the bath, using a super-fatted soap such as castile. This soap is to avoid drying the skin. When you've finished and are roiled up in your dressing gown again, sit on the floor or a chair, and massage the feet and ankles while the skin is still warm from the bath water.

Clean the toe nails daily with a pointed nail file; once a week cut the nails and rub off callouses with an emery board. At bedtime unless the weather is too warm, tuck a hot water bottle between the sheets and keep your feet on it. Its comforting warmth draws the blood to the feet, away from the head, and induces sleep.

Exercise the feet. Walk on tiptoe around the room when you are in light slippers, or without slippers at all. This strengthens the calves of the legs. Sit on a chair with the feet out so they are not touching the floor, and wriggle them up and down and sideways. This exercise strengthens them and improves their circulation too. Take the big toe between your fingers and move it up and down and sideways, this avoids bunions and keeps that joint from growing stiff.

Casey—If you trim off all the split ends of the hair every three weeks, you will find that it will stop splitting to any extent. After you have gotten rid of all these ends, trim the hair about every other month. The reason why you have such a bad condition is due to the splits having travelled up through the length of the hair shafts; but once these are clipped off, a new split is not likely to occur again for a long time.

Girl—If the girl of 12 years of age who is five feet, five inches, in height with a weight of 120 pounds is in good health, there should not be any feeling of concern about her proportions.

Tomorrow—Effects of Certain Treatments

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, and a great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

MAUVE BEING USED

PARIS, May 23.—Mauve and deep green are the shades used today for some stunning new negligees. They are made up largely of three or four very wide bands of fluff, alternating with deep green satin brocade and mounted upon mauve georgette.

SUMMER FROCKS SHINY

NEW YORK, May 23.—The new summer dress frock is a glittering affair. In the first place, its fabric is a shining, lightweight satin or a shining silk. And to this sheen is added that of jewel beads and bits of metal lace.

FEATHERS COME BACK

LONDON, May 23.—Feathers play an important role today in the decoration of the smart English woman as they did in that of the smart savage. There are feather hems, feather ear-rings and feather bracelets.

There is in foot a national one-color plan to systematize traffic signals and danger signals.

CARPENTIER BACK TRAINING AGAIN

Laid Off Two Days to Keep From Working Too Hard; Gibbons Is Ready

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind., May 23.—After a two days' layoff, counseled because his condition was believed advancing too near the proper edge for battle, Georges Carpentier entered the ring again today for a couple of rounds each with Soldier King and Jack Taylor at his camp on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Trainer Wilson has instructed his charge not to work too hard. Sunday will be a big day for Carpentier, when he will give his last public workout, the receipts to go to a benefit fund.

Tom Gibbons went ahead with his workouts. He is "right" for the match a week from tomorrow, according to his manager, Eddie Kane.

Ready to Go
"The only way to hold Tom back is to keep him out of the ring," Kane said.
Jack Curley, who acts as interpreter for the Carpentier camp, returns today from New York, providing for more free exchanges between that camp and the gathering cloud of newspapermen. Francois Descamps, Carpentier's manager, speaks English not at all, and Carpentier himself cannot answer all the questions and devote his attention to training at the same time.

FOR GAME'S SAKE

By LAWRENCE PERRY.
By Special Leased Wire to The Glendale Evening News, Copyright 1924.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Arizona polo players have arrived in this city and they are a likely looking bunch of bronzed, whippy youngsters. Their ponies are the finest pick of mustangs and one of the most interesting phases in the minds of horsemen will be how these cayuses fare against the blooded mounts of the Princeton players.

The development of the University of Arizona in polo shows what can be done when the will is indomitable in the face of a treasury deficit and other discouragements. When Colonel Ralph Middleton Parker came from Tucson from Camp Meade in 1922 and proceeded to build up on the enthusiastic, if disorganized polo system at the university, he found a lack of nearly every requisite.

Cattlemen donated mounts and equipment was provided by wealthy tourists, friends of the university and military men. When it was determined to enter the Arizona team in the winter tourney for western colleges at San Antonio all sorts of expedients had to be devised to finance the expedition. And, as well, the string of mounts had to be increased to 24.

When the team arrived at the scene of the tournament not more than half of the ponies had ever played in more than two or three polo scrimmages. Yet the cowpunchers swept through their list of opponents, defeating Texas A. and M., 10 to 0; New Mexico 4 to 1, Colorado 10 to 1, and Oklahoma 2 to 1.

Colonel Parker, the military commandant at Arizona, was never a crack poloist. None the less, he has had his share of success. He captained the winning four in the army polo series in Cuba in 1908 and later he managed the winning four in the army series in Havana in 1912.

His ability as a coach was signally demonstrated in the first outside match played by Arizona after Colonel Parker had taken hold, the team defeating the Tenth Cavalry outfit from Fort Huachuca 9 to 6. And in 1923 the Mesa team won fame throughout the west by defeating a visiting Leland Stanford four in two out of three contests.

While on the subject of western polo players, it might be interesting to note that three members of the Cornell four which participated in the recent intercollegiate tournament hail from the sovereign state of Ohio, viz: Cesar A. Grasselli, Cleveland; Rollin H. White of Cleveland and Alfred S. Jarecki of Sandusky.

Southern intercollegiate polo will probably be only a question of time. Horsemanship is indigenous, so to speak, to the Dixie soil and the fact that most of the crack northern players migrate to the southland for play in the winter and early spring should provide southern college men with favorable opportunities for learning their polo from the best teachers.

REDS IN THIRD

CINCINNATI, May 23.—The Reds displaced from leadership of the National league, yesterday dropped into third place by losing to the Giants 7 to 6. The Reds outthrew the visitors but fielded miserably behind Luque in the early stages of the game. Both sides used three pitchers.

RALLY WINS GAME

A rally in the seventh inning gave the White Sox two runs and also a 3 to 2 victory over the Athletics.

POOR FIELDING

Poor fielding by the Cardinals cost them the game with the Phillies, 4 to 1.

Pick Of State's Stars To Compete Tomorrow

Everything is in readiness for the Olympic tryouts at the Coliseum tomorrow, when the greatest collection of athletes ever gathered in the southwest will compete for a place on the team that makes the trip to Boston to appear in the Olympic finals.

The fastest sprinters, greatest weight men and best field men that California ever produced will be in competition, and several marks are expected to fall before the last event is finished. In addition Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world will box three exhibition rounds in a ring especially constructed for that purpose.

While interest will naturally center in the performances of Charles Paddock in the 100-yard dash and the furlong, there will be several hundred other athletes present whose marks have been outstanding in athletic circles the year.

Lee Kearns, best prep pole vaulter of the year, will endeavor to do 13 feet in this event. He has been credited with 12 feet, 11 1/4 inches.

All the star quarter milers and hurdle men have entered and with Maxwell, Dye, Grumbles and Dags in the latter race this should be a high light of the afternoon's entertainment.

The prediction of continued prosperity for makers of electrical appliances according to P. H. Galsides, vice-president of the United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia, rests on the fact that experience has emphasized more and more that the public wants service and must have it.

"A community can grow no faster than its public utilities," he concluded. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, in offering its 300,000 shareholders $150,000,000 of new stock, emphasized the fact that more than 3,200,000 telephone lines had been added to the Bell System in the last five years, that the demand for new equipment had been heavier in the last year than ever before and that in the present year officials expect 15 per cent more telephones to be installed than in 1923.

Rickard Denies Bout For Wills Called Off

NEW YORK, May 23.—In a statement made public today, Tex Rickard denied reports that he planned to forego a Wills-Dempsey bout this fall in favor of a match between Tommy Gibbons and the champion.

"I expect Jack Kearns here in a few weeks, and am confident that we will have no trouble in reaching an agreement," Rickard said. "I have Kearns' assurance that Dempsey will fight Wills for me, provided, of course, the negro is not eliminated in one or two tests I may arrange for him."

Monrovia Plays Here, Dynamiters Are Foes

Today at 4 o'clock the Glendale High school baseball team hooks up with the Monrovia nine on Broadway field. The last time the two teams met the local bunch won, 19 to 7. For Glendale Charlie Smith is slated to pitch, while Elmer Muff will catch. W. Bender and De Soto are the two Wildcat slabs. It is expected that Bender will start the game with De Soto as a relief pitcher. Coleman, who is clean-up man for the Poothillers, will probably handle Bender's slants.

Lane Denies Tale of Changing Franchise

SALT LAKE CITY, May 23.—President W. H. Lane has emphatically repudiated rumors originating on the coast that the franchise of the Salt Lake ball club would be transferred to Long Beach, Calif., or San Diego. The rumor is said to have originated from an interview with Wade Killifer, manager of the Seattle club, to the effect that he would vote for Lane to get a 50 per cent cut on gate receipts instead of the customary 40 per cent on the road if the Salt Lake president would transfer his franchise.

Experienced Slingers Engaged to Hurl Pie

HOLLYWOOD, May 23.—Custard pies on the Lasky lot! Time honored tradition has fallen before "Merton of the Movies." It has been the unwritten law that "no rough stuff goes here," but the script called for pies and more pies.

Chester Conklin and Kalla Pasha, two old-time Keystone comedians, were called upon to pitch the pies artistically—and so they did, spattering even the director and cameraman with the custard delicacies.

PICK BLACK GOLD AS NATION'S BEST

Western Horsemen Contend Colt Is Logical One To Race Epinard

By DAVIS J. WALSH
For International News Service.

NEW YORK, May 23.—With Wise Counselor and Sarazen in virtual or actual retirement, western horsemen have begun to ballyhoo Black Gold, winner of the Kentucky derby, as the logical opponent of Epinard, French champion, in at least one of his match races here late in the coming fall.

The Hoosier entry is the only thoroughbred in this country, apparently, that can run fast enough to keep the French horse stepping. The agitation raised by Black Gold's followers was noted in the east for the first time, several days after the derby. Until then many turf cities were disposed to look down their noses at the black son of Useet, finding much fault with a colt that had been unplaced only three times out of 24.

Even after he won at Churchill Downs, overcoming more obstacles than did Zev a year ago, his trainers were not silent. They seized upon August Belmont's Ordinance and declared him to be the best three-year-old in training, for no particular reason. Yesterday, Ordinance spilled the beans all over the premises by running fifth in the Metropolitan handicap at Belmont park.

Leaves Black Gold
It is admitted now, east and west, that if the Epinard race were to be run tomorrow, Black Gold would be the only representative American horse available.

Zev, hardly the dashing colt of 1923, has been beaten by St. James which, in turn, broke down in preparing for the Preakness. Wise Counselor, once regarded as the greatest three-year-old in the west and a winner over Black Gold, went bad at Pimlico and is out of training. Sarazen, unbeaten two-year-old of last season, failed to develop and has lost caste everywhere.

The evidence, therefore, is in favor of Black Gold and, unless something happens to him in the meantime, he is almost certain to be named to face Epinard in one or more races this fall. In fact, the American can do no less. The American horse that can win the Kentucky derby and Kentucky trial derby as impressively as Black Gold and then turn around and win over his field at Churchill Downs after the interference he suffered, is a champion colt.

Says Yarrison Deal Is Off; Want Too Much

PORTLAND, Ore., May 23.—The Portland Beavers have refused to pay Brooklyn the amount of cash necessary to get Pitcher "Rube" Yarrison in a trade for Outfielder Dick Cox, and the deal will not likely go through, President W. H. Klepper of the Portland club, announced today. Advice received here from Brooklyn yesterday indicated that the deal had been completed.

BUSINESS WORLD

By J. C. ROY.
Special Correspondent to The Evening News, Copyright, 1924.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Whatever the trend of business in other industries may be there is every indication that the electrical equipment companies will not slacken their activities in 1924. The use of electricity is expanding so rapidly that public utility companies are having difficulty in keeping pace with the demand, according to Stone and Webster of Boston, who are a prominent factor in the electrical development field.

The prediction of continued prosperity for makers of electrical appliances according to P. H. Galsides, vice-president of the United Gas Improvement Company of Philadelphia, rests on the fact that experience has emphasized more and more that the public wants service and must have it.

"A community can grow no faster than its public utilities," he concluded. The American Telephone and Telegraph Company, in offering its 300,000 shareholders $150,000,000 of new stock, emphasized the fact that more than 3,200,000 telephone lines had been added to the Bell System in the last five years, that the demand for new equipment had been heavier in the last year than ever before and that in the present year officials expect 15 per cent more telephones to be installed than in 1923.

The trend became distinctly firm after the lunch hour.

Constructive operations were confined to individual issues, among which the public utilities, Congleum, International Paper, Philadelphia and Reading Coal, New York Dock, Pan-American and Pullman were prominent.

Sugars, on the other hand, developed weakness, due to the recurring decline in the commodity. Call money was renewed at 3 per cent.

The ultra-easy credit position was again forcibly reflected in the weekly federal reserve statement, indicating a further rise in the system's ratio to 3 per cent, the highest in seven years.

Cotton and grains firmed up after early heaviness.

Bonds were firm. Liberty 4 1/2's reached 101, a new high for the year.

Stocks continued firm throughout the last hour. Even the oils held to the day's high levels in the face of the gasoline reduction announced by Standard Oil of Indiana, which, however, was of local character, Chicago being the only district affected.

The market closed steady.

NEW YORK CLOSING

H. J. DUIZEND
For International News Service

NEW YORK, May 23.—A spirit of inertia descended on the stock market today.

Its waiting attitude was perfectly logical in view of the uncertainty surrounding tax legislation. The opposition voiced by the treasury department to the compromise tax measure left the final outcome of the matter very much in the air.

In banking quarters it was rather freely predicted that President Coolidge, in order to avoid a serious split with Secretary Mellon, would veto the bill. Speculative circles, however, were inclined to believe the measure would win the president's approval because of the country-wide demand for some kind of tax relief.

Should the bill be vetoed and the question taken to the political campaign was felt that temporary relief might still be afforded through the adoption of a recommendation calling for 25 per cent cut in 1923 taxes.

In spite of the prevailing uncertainty and the diminishing transactions the market showed underlying firmness and was able to retain practically all of the gains scored in the two previous sessions.

The trend became distinctly firm after the lunch hour.

AUTOMOBILES

CLEVELAND, O., May 23.—Under the plans for expansion of the White automobile and sewing machine plants, the latter will build a new four-story factory, allowing an increase of 82 per cent in output, while the present plant will be used by the White Truck company for a service and repair department.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—Receipts of automobiles here have been so heavy that the Pennsylvania railroad has been compelled to construct a new unloading plant formed of two-track width and 430 feet long, at which twenty cars can be unloaded at a time.

POULTRY

CHICAGO, May 23.—Stores of frozen poultry are lower now than almost any time during the past five years. A total of $2,094,000 pounds was in cold storage at the opening of the week.

SHOES

SEATTLE, May 23.—Merchants here were greatly disappointed over the failure of women's "white shoe week" to bring the buying response expected. Men's shoes are distinctly dull.

TEXTILES

SEATTLE, May 23.—The largest maker of flannel cloth for men's shirts in this section has orders from the East assuring production for the remainder of the year at a rate double the 1923 output. A new plant and additional buildings will be necessary and working forces have been increased 50 per cent.

WOOL

SEATTLE, May 23.—Unexpected softening of wool prices has led to more talk of storing in Washington or Idaho. Fine clips in Idaho are down to 36 to 38 cents, with buyers reluctant to purchase even at those figures. The same grades last year brought 42 cents. Eastern Washington wools have dropped from 36 to 32 cents in the last ten days.

THIRD GAME OF SERIES WON BY SEATTLE, 10 TO 6

Gregg's Pitching Too Much For Tigers; Two Homers Add to Score

LOS ANGELES, May 23.—Vean Gregg, southpaw hurler, who started pitching baseball when many of the players now in action were being pushed around in four-wheeled carriages, returned to his old-time form yesterday afternoon at Washington park, and Seattle won the third game of the series, 10 to 6. Three of the Tiger runs were accounted for by a home run by Pitcher Shellenback when two men were on base.

Frank Shellenback and Earl Baldwin hit home runs, but the hitting honors for the day went to Elmer Bowman, stocky first-sacker. Bowman poked out five safes and scored four of the Seattle runs. Four of his hits were singles, while one went to the left-field wall for a double.

In addition to hurling a nice game Gregg crossed up things in the seventh inning, when Shellenback walked Baldwin, filling the bases to go at the Seattle moundsmen. He crashed out a single to left, scoring two men.

RINGSIDE GOSSIP

By FAIR PLAY

By Special Leased Wire to The Glendale Evening News, Copyright 1924. NEW YORK, May 23.—The latest bulletin is that the Willis-Madden fight will be held in Newark at Dreamland park next Monday night. Maybe it will. The up and up as to why the fight was held within the limits of greater New York is political in nature, it seems. No mixed battle is wanted hereabouts before the national election. Whether this applies to Jersey will be shortly known.

Romero Rojas, who is now rusticated at Freddie Welsh's farm at Summit, N. J., is merely resting—recuperating from a better word. He is recuperating from the wallowing that Floyd Johnson handed out to him. Floyd in his has received wallops on the head, in account, but if he could glance at the Chilean when stripped for the showers at Summit he would feel he has settled his score with fate.

But, while physically sore, Romero is mentally blithe. As the writer prophesied, Quintin the Quince is almost as much of an attraction as when he arrived here. Rickard has requested his appearance in another bout, and every day his mail contains one or more offers from various parts of the country.

Romero put his failure against Johnson down to improper training, and he says that when next he prepares for ring combat it will be under the guidance of some good American conditioner.

Jack Delaney as an attraction for the milk fund house has seized out as suddenly as he flared across the horizon. Looks like a case of bad handling. After he furnished the big surprise of paying his opportunity right he was barnstorming and takes on Jackie Clarke. The fans were willing to forgive his failure to stow Clarke away, knowing this lad's sprinting ability, but when he went ahead and pulled his miserable fight against Bryan Downey it was out for him. The sad part is that when Downey is right he is no fun at all, and he is no fighter in his class. Of course, the fans don't consider that. They have looked back to the Wilson Downey fiasco and hold their noses whenever anyone speaks of Bryan—at least they do hereabouts.

QUESTION—Player hits a hard ball. In running past one of the bases he fails to touch it. He said he only had to come within so many feet of a base. How should this be ruled?

ANSWER—Player was all wrong. If that were the case any runner could score by coming within so many feet of home plate.

QUESTION—Can you please tell me if a baseball diamond includes the outfield?

ANSWER—Yes, of course the diamond is presumed to be the space within the base lines, but it is in reality the space within the base lines extended, because all that is fair territory.

QUESTION—Has Wright formerly of Pittsburgh beenadvised permanently to Pittsburgh and what has become of Maranville?

ANSWER—Wright is shortstop for Pittsburgh and Maranville is playing second base.

QUESTION—The batter was given four balls and the next batter stepped up to the plate. The catcher threw the ball first before the first batter had got there and the umpire called him out because the batter was in his box.

ANSWER—The umpire was wrong. The batter is entitled to first base when given a base on balls, and it doesn't make any difference whether the succeeding batter is in the batter's box or not.

SPORT WISDOM

By Special Leased Wire to The Glendale Evening News, Copyright 1924. NEW YORK, May 23.—Decision of the Olympic officials to penalize false starts in the track events is a big step in the right direction. In past years there has been altogether too much "beating of the gun," and no matter what country profited by it, it led to a ridiculous number of false starts.

Back in 1912, in the Olympics at Stockholm, the contestants in the 500 meter race were at the starting point for 20 minutes, during which time innumerable false starts were made. That sort of thing is not only annoying to the spectators, but decidedly unfair to the athletes who are observing the rules.

A writer signing himself "A Finlander," observes that Finland is entering the Olympics at Paris with a team made up exclusively of Finns, while America enters "with Swedes, Irish, Italians, Slavs, negroes and products of other races, yellow, brown and black."

Yes—and maybe a few Finns. Mr. Finlander—who lives in America forgets for the moment that America is the great melting pot, and that, despite their various birth lands, the men America is entering are all Americans. Indeed it would be difficult to eliminate his criticism unless we entered an all-Indian team.

Wisconsin is sending a crew to the Hudson regatta in June, the first since it decided a decade ago that the Hudson event was too great a strain on the men entered in it. It would be interesting to compare statistics on the physical welfare of the crews which did not row on the Hudson with the statistics which led Wisconsin to abandon the eastern race back in 1914.

SECRET WORKOUT HIT FIGHT FANS

Instist Carpenter Should Stick to Agreement to Keep Camp Open

CHICAGO, May 23.—Francis Descamps' announcement that the final week of Georges Carpentier's training for Tom Gibbons will be a secret between the wild Lake Michigan waves and the Carpenter entourage, effective next Monday, has raised a critical clamor in some quarters.

It is the same policy which guarded Carpenter's training before Dempsey knocked the former French aviator for a series of loops. Then it was properly and not unfavorably regarded as a version to type, for the public prints made much of it.

Now the situation is different, in that the articles of agreement provided for public training of both fighters, and the sport critics ask, pertinently:

It is to wonder Is secret training ordered because Carpenter is already in condition and will work too hard before the fans, as Descamps says, or because his condition is not so good?

In the meager workouts the critics have viewed at Carpenter's camp, has there been any real chance to determine whether his hands are in good shape?

Are not the fans who lay from $5.50 to $22 on the line for fight seats entitled to watch the preliminary preparations?

Gibbons' condition is known and he has suffered no setback such as Siki, the Senegalese sky-rocket, gave Carpenter. Nor are any of his preparations behind closed doors, save those which follow the workouts and bring into play a bottle of non-drinking alcohol and Buck Papini, the masseuse.

It is possible that the fans' demands may lead to open camps at both camps alike. But despite the articles of agreement, Descamps is not easily wheedled.

ANGELS 6, SOLONS 7

SACRAMENTO, May 23.—Art Hoehler's home run over the left wall, coming in the fourth inning of yesterday's game, with the bases loaded, broke a 3-3 tie and Sacramento won the third game of the series, 7 to 6. The Angels by their defeat are again in the cellar.

DUDLEY LEE OUT

BOSTON, May 23.—Dudley Lee, star shortstop of the Red Sox was out of the lineup yesterday, and Ezzell, formerly of the Browns who took his place made four costly errors. Boston lost to Detroit 6 to 5, the Tigers scoring three runs in the ninth. Lee was said to be suffering from a heavy cold.

LAIRD TO FIGHT FOR NET TROPHY

Meets Gorchakoff Tomorrow In Semi-Finals; Covina Stars Here Tuesday

By ROSS M. RUSSELL, JR. Of The Evening News Staff. Whether the interscholastic tennis cup will come to Glendale will be decided tomorrow on the courts of the Los Angeles Tennis club when Bob Laird, first man of the Glendale High school tennis team, plays Gorchakoff of the Los Angeles High net team in the semi-finals of the annual interscholastic tennis tournament.

Not long ago Wayne Maxwell, second man of the local quartet, beat the Los Angeles high player, and unless all the dope is wrong, Laird should emerge the victor from the match Saturday. If Laird beats Gorchakoff he will meet Dale Issenuth of Hollywood in the finals of the tournament.

The Glendale tennis team is almost invincible among the high school net stars of Southern California. In the Dudley cup tournament at Santa Monica, Maxwell had the Hollywood first man point set twice, only to lose out on his opponent's very lucky "gets."

Local Match Tuesday

The tennis match between the Glendale High school team and the Covina four has been postponed until Tuesday of next week. The reason of the postponement was not given but is probably the fact that two of Covina net stars are on the baseball team which plays today.

An easy victory is predicted for the local quartet. Laird will play first man, Maxwell second. White third and Harty fourth. Maxwell and Laird will play first doubles for the locals with Osborne and White second.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 23.—Track stars of the Middle West gathered here today for the seventeenth annual Missouri Valley track and field championships. A field of 264 athletes was scheduled to compete this afternoon in the preliminaries, the finals being staged at the Nebraska Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon.

KELLY COMES BACK

George Kelly came back to the game after a few days' absence and his double sent over two runs. Kelly third and Harty fourth enabled the Giants to bundle the first line of trenches and get back to second place. Score 7 to 6.

STILL ON TOP

The Cubs retained their death grip on the first place when they took advantage of Barnes' wildness and bunched their hits for a 6 to 2 victory over the Braves.

TIE FOR SECOND

The Browns went into a tie for second place when they won a hard-fought game from the Senators, 3 to 1.

VANCE GETS FIRST

Daddy Vance made his first home run of the season and scored his sixth straight victory when the Dodgers defeated the Pirates, 4 to 2.

Occidental college will be well represented in the Olympic tryouts at the L. A. Coliseum tomorrow. Eight Tiger athletes, members of the conference championship track team and victors in the Drake and Penn relays, will wear the Orange and Black colors at the stadium.

Southern California

By Southland News Service

ORANGE SHIPMENTS
FULLERTON, May 23.—Valencia orange shipments from northern Orange county are increasing in volume and the total for the week from the local exchange is expected to reach 250 cars. The market outlook is good.

GOOD ROADS DELEGATE
SAN BERNARDINO, May 23.—Chairman A. G. Kendall of the San Bernardino county board of supervisors was named yesterday by Governor Friend W. Richardson as California's delegate to the national good roads meeting to be held in Albuquerque, N. M., May 26 to 31. California will extend an invitation to the meeting for the 1925 session.

PATTON IS CROWDED
RIVERSIDE, May 23.—Since May 1 eight residents of this county have been sent to the state hospital at Patton for insanity, it is reported. The San Bernardino institution is overflowing, with no signs of enlarged quarters. Dr. Riley, the superintendent says, that will be adequate.

MOTHER IS JAILED
SANTA ANA, May 23.—Senora Theda Medina has exasperated the patience of Justice Jack Landel at Los Alamitos. Twice previously he has released this mother of eight when she was charged with bootlegging, but this week on her third arrest the umpire said she was "in" instead of "out" and the jail is where she will reside for awhile.

ELECTION MYSTERY
FULLERTON, May 23.—The student body of Fullerton High school is all agog over the election held Tuesday. There were 642 ballots cast for student officers and only 471 pupils were present. How come? Principal Louis Plummer is looking for an explanation without a clue to work on.

VOTE SEWER BONDS
LAGUNA BEACH, May 23.—This artists' haven has voted $85,000 bonds for a sewer system by a vote of 193 to 25. Two deep water wells recently drilled, also give joy to the "new Rivera" because they will provide for a population of 10,000, it is said.

NOVEL TOURNAMENT
BALBOA BEACH, May 23.—The Tournament of Lights, one of the most novel celebrations in the southland, will be held here on the night of August 2, it is announced. On June 22 the annual Bathing Girls' Revue will be staged.

PLAN BEACH FILL
SAN PEDRO, May 23.—Cabrillo beach here will be built at a cost of 10 cents per cubic yard, if the United Dredging company and the harbor commission of Los Angeles can agree on the price, it is reported. It will require $32,000 yards of dirt to make the fill.

CHORUS GIRL SUICIDE
HOLLYWOOD, May 23.—A little "wildflower" is dead. More beautiful in death, it seemed, than the days she trudged from studio to studio seeking work. Cecil Warner, 18-year-old film beauty and chorus girl from "The Wildflower" company which toured the middle-west last winter, was found last night in her room at 6925 Hollywood boulevard, having taken her own life some time between Monday night and Wednesday morning. She left a note to her sister, Mrs. C. R. Reinhardt of 1434 Formosa avenue, who later was located in San Francisco. "I am not the least bit afraid" said the death message which indicated that neither dependency nor lack of funds was responsible for her rash act—rather failure to find fame.

SCRIBES TOUR PORT
SAN PEDRO, May 23.—The California Press association, headed by Governor Friend W. Richardson, this morning made a tour of Los Angeles harbor as the guests of President Colden and members of the harbor commission. After lunch at Long Beach the party will be the guests of Admiral Robison of the Pacific fleet, outer harbor.

FEAR FOR CROCKERY
PASADENA, May 23.—Residents of the exclusive Orange Grove avenue millionaire district are quaking with the fear of ruined glassware when the students at California Institute of Technology shatter the Linda Vista bridge across the Arroyo Seco with TNT next Saturday. City Manager Kolner has been assured that no damage will result but it is hard for the public to understand.

KILLED IN PLUNGE
NEW HALL, May 23.—John I. Straight, Portland, Ore., business man, was killed when one of two Hawley Tour cars, traveling between Old Mexico and the northern city, plunged 200 feet over a precipice off of the Ridge route above Castaic last night. Another passenger was injured in the crash, according to Wilbur T. Hawley's report to Constable Pilcher.

CHARGES FRAME-UP
SAN PEDRO, May 23.—Charges that a huge bootlegging ring, with headquarters at Los Angeles harbor are trying to frame him and other police officers have been made public by Patrolman George McMahon of the force on duty here. He accuses Mrs. Amelia Behling of trumping up charges against him to protect her husband, who, he alleges, is a member of the ring.

EXPECT BIG CROWD
MONROVIA, May 23.—Record crowds in the foothills near this city are expected Sunday, according to Louis H. Anderson, deputy forester, with offices at Pasadena. He has been a resident of this city for eighteen years.

OFFICERS MUST WAIT
INDEPENDENCE, May 23.—When Special Investigator Jack Dymond of Los Angeles arrived

WANTS POSTOFFICE
ALHAMBRA, May 23.—This city is enjoying the throes of a growing Los Angeles suburb. This week a survey is being made to determine whether or not it should have an independent post-office.
